HYMNS AND TUNES

FOR

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

COMPILED BY

REV. GEORGE C. ROBINSON.

"O come let us sing unto the Lord; let us make a joyful noise unto the Rock of our salvation."—PSALM xcvi: 1.

CINCINNATI:

PUBLISHED BY POE & HITCHCOCK,

CORNER MAIN AND EIGHTH STREETS.

R. F. THOMPSON, PRINTER.

1862.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1860,
BY POE & HITCHCOCK,
in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Southern District of Ohio.

STEREOTYPED AT THE FRANKLIN TYPE FOUNDRY,
CINCINNATI.

P R E F A C E .

THE preparation of this work was undertaken in the hope of assisting devotional singing, and of thus rendering acceptable service to God. It is now offered, not to create, but to supply a want, of the existence of which there can be no doubt. The Rev. Dr. D. W. CLARK has thus expressed himself concerning it: "The recent contributions to our social melodies have been numerous and valuable; yet no one of them has appeared to me exactly to meet the wants of the Church and the times. Some have depended mainly, for success, upon a few new and popular songs or tunes; others have been deficient in careful selection; and still others, by the insertion of many hymns and tunes, rarely, if ever, used in social meetings, have been made too large and too expensive for popular use. The real want for our social meetings is a small and cheap volume, comprising the old hymns and tunes which have become sacred by almost universal use, and also a judicious selection from the later popular songs and melodies." Rev. Dr. McCLINTOCK has also expressed substantially the same opinion. He says: "A fit collection of Prayer and Class-meeting tunes I have long desired to see. It certainly is one of the serious wants of the Church."

The plan of the book is as follows: It is small enough to make selection always easy, and to allow pastor and people to become thoroughly familiar with it: it is large enough to include several hymns under each of the topics which are ordinarily introduced into our social meetings. The great mass of the hymns are those which universal use has indicated as the best ; so of the tunes. Those hymns and tunes are put together which in our Church usage have always been so associated. Where different tunes have been attached to a given hymn in different sections, the two most widely known in connection with the hymn are here put with it. Where hymns in the same meter occur on opposite pages, the intention is that either of the tunes may be used, according to preference. For instance, on pages 94 and 95, the tunes "Joy" and "Commuck" are both appropriate to the hymns "O! how happy are they," and "Come let us ascend." There is also, it is hoped, a sufficient selection from the popular chorus tunes, of such as are superior in music and words, and likely to last. There have also been added a few grand hymns and tunes from various sources ; chiefly from the German.

The topical index will be found to facilitate selection, and indeed will be indispensable until one becomes thoroughly familiar with the book.

Many of the tunes are copy-righted, and are used here by permission of their respective proprietors. If any trespass has been committed in this respect, it has been unintentional ; and upon information, the owners will immediately be paid a fair equivalent, or the piece will be omitted.

The compiler begs to acknowledge his very great obligations to Mrs. Dr. OLIN, and Rev. Drs. CLARK and McCLINTOCK, for their valuable assistance in the matter of selection and adaptation ; and to Prof. T. C. O'KANE, whose culture, taste, and kindness have been largely taxed to bring the work to completion.

May God prosper this book to fill our social meetings with a "joyful noise," and crowd our altars with those who come to hear our song.

RECOMMENDATION.

A FIT collection of Prayer and Class-Meeting Hymns and Tunes, we have long desired to see. It certainly is one of the serious wants of the Church, and we are greatly gratified to find that the Rev. G. C. ROBINSON has gone to work under the pressure of a similar sense of want, and has prepared, so far as we are able to judge, just such a book as the Church needs. Of its success there can, we think, be no doubt.

Hymns and Tunes.

RETREAT. L. M.

DR. T. HASTINGS.

From ev'ry stormy wind that blows, From ev'ry swelling tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure retreat: 'Tis found before the mercy-seat.

1 The Mercy-Seat.

- 2 There is a place, where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads ;
A place than all besides more sweet,—
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene, where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend :
Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet,
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 Ah ! whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed ?
Or how the hosts of hell defeat,
Had suff'ring saints no mercy-seat ?
- 5 There, there on eagles' wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more ;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
While glory crowns the mercy-seat.

Forth from the dark and stormy sky, Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly;

Forth from the world, its hope and fear, Saviour, we seek thy shelter here.

2 Gathering for Prayer.

- 2 Long have we roamed in want and pain,
 Long have we sought thy rest in vain;
 Weary and weak, thy grace we pray,
 Turn not, O Lord! thy guests away.
- 3 Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost,
 Long have our souls been tempest-tossed;
 Low at thy feet our sins we lay;
 Turn not, O Lord! thy guests away.

3 Not ashamed of Jesus.

- 1 JESUS, and shall it ever be,
 A mortal man ashamed of thee!
 Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise,—
 Whose glories shine through endless days.
- 2 Ashamed of Jesus!—that dear Friend
 On whom my hopes of heaven depend;
 No!—when I blush, be this my shame,—
 That I no more revere his Name.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus!—yes, I may,
 When I've no guilt to wash away:
 No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
 No fears to quell, no soul to save.
- 4 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
 Till then, I boast a Savior slain;
 And O, may this my glory be,—
 That Christ is not ashamed of me.

4 Glorjng only in the Cross.

- 1 WHEN I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God ;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down :
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?
- 4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small :
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

5 The Wanderer's Return.

- 1 RETURN, O wanderer, return,
And seek an injured Father's face ;
Those warm desires that in thee burn
Were kindled by reclaiming grace.
- 2 Return, O wanderer, return,
Thy Saviour bids thy spirit live ;
Go to his bleeding feet, and learn
How freely Jesus can forgive.

6 Earthly things vain and transitory.

- 1 HOW vain is all beneath the skies !
How transient every earthly bliss !
How slender all the fondest ties
That bind us to a world like this !
- 2 The evening cloud, the morning dew,
The with'ring grass, the fading flower,
Of earthly hopes are emblems true—
The glory of a passing hour.
- 3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die,
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a brighter world on high,
Beyond the reach of care and pain.
- 4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares, and chase our fears :
If God be ours, we're trav'ling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.

A - wake, my soul! stretch ev' - ry nerve, And press with vig - or on; A heaven - ly race de - mands thy zeal, And an im - mor - tal crown.

7 The race for glory.

- 2 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis he whose hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye.
- 3 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
- 4 Blest Saviour! introduced by thee,
Our race have we begun;
And, crown'd with vict'ry, at thy feet
We'll lay our trophies down.

8 The minister's only business.

- 1 JESUS, the Name high over all,
In hell, or earth, or sky;
Angels and men before it fall,
And devils fear and fly.

- 2 Jesus, the Name to sinners dear,—
The Name to sinners given ;
It scatters all their guilty fear ;
It turns their hell to heaven.
- 3 Jesus the pris'ner's fetters breaks,
And bruises Satan's head ;
Power into strengthless souls he speaks,
And life into the dead.
- 4 O, that the world might taste and see
The riches of his grace ;
The arms of love that compass me,
Would all mankind embrace.

9 Sufficiency and freeness.

- 1 O WHAT amazing words of grace
Are in the Gospel found !
Suited to every sinner's case,
Who knows the joyful sound.
- 2 Poor, sinful, thirsty, fainting souls,
Are freely welcome here ;
Salvation, like a river, rolls,
Abundant, free, and clear.
- 3 Come, then, with all your wants and wounds ;
Your every burden bring :
Here love, unchanging love, abounds,—
A deep, celestial spring.
- 4 Whoever will—O gracious word !—
May of this stream partake ;
Come, thirsty souls, and bless the Lord,
And drink for Jesus' sake.

10 The voice that wakes the dead.

- 1 THOU Son of God, whose flaming eyes
Our inmost thoughts perceive,
Accept the grateful sacrifice
Which now to thee we give.
- 2 Is here a soul that knows thee not,
Nor feels his need of thee,
A stranger to the blood which bought
His pardon on the tree ?
- 3 Convince him now of unbelief ;
His desp'rate state explain ;
And fill his heart with sacred grief,
And penitential pain.
- 4 Speak, with that voice that wakes the dead,
And bid the sleeper rise ;
And bid his guilty conscience dread
The death that never dies.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Peterboro' C. M.'. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: 'Come, let us join our cheerful songs With angels round the throne: Ten thousand thousand are their tongues, But all their joys are one.'

- 11 The Lamb worshiped on earth and in heaven.
 2 Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
 To be exalted thus:
 Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
 For he was slain for us.
 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
 Honor and power divine;
 And blessings more than we can give,
 Be, Lord, forever thine.
 4 The whole creation join in one,
 To bless the sacred name
 Of Him that sits upon the throne,
 And to adore the Lamb.

12 Victorious faith.

- 1 IN hope, against all human hope,
 Self-desp'rate, I believe,
 Thy quick'ning word shall raise me up;
 Thou wilt thy Spirit give.
 2 The thing surpasses all my thought;
 But faithful is my Lord;
 Through unbelief I stagger not,
 For God hath spoke the word.
 3 Faith, mighty faith, the promise sees,
 And looks to that alone;
 Laughs at impossibilities,
 And cries,—It shall be done!
 4 Obedient faith, that waits on thee,
 Thou never wilt reprove;
 But thou wilt form thy Son in me,
 And perfect me in love.

13 Gratitude.

- 1 WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I 'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.
- 2 O how can words with equal warmth
The gratitude declare,
That glows within my ravished heart?—
But thou canst read it there.
- 3 To all my weak complaints and cries,
Thy mercy lent an ear,
Ere yet my feeble thoughts had learned
To form themselves in prayer.
- 4 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I 'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The pleasing theme renew.
- 5 Through all eternity to thee
A grateful song I 'll raise;
But O! eternity 's too short
To utter all thy praise.

14 Join the song of the Church triumphant.

- 1 SING we the song of those who stand
Around th' eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,—
A multitude unknown.
- 2 Toil, trial, suffering, still await
On earth the pilgrim throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
The Church-triumphant's song.
- 3 Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,
Cry the redeem'd above,
Blessing and honor to obtain,
And everlasting love.
- 4 Worthy the Lamb, on earth we sing,
Who died our souls to save:
Henceforth, O Death, where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave?
- 5 Then hallelujah! power, and praise
To God in Christ be given;
May all who now this anthem raise,
Renew the song in heaven.

Be - fore Je - ho - vah's aw - ful throne, Ye nations

bow with sa - cred joy; Know that the Lord is God a - lone, He can cre - ate, and he de - stroy.

15 Grateful Adoration.

- 1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations bow with sacred joy;
Know that the Lord is God alone,
He can create, and he destroy.
- 2 His sov'reign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and form'd us men;
And when like wand'ring sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 4 Wide as the world is thy command;
Vast as eternity thy love;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

16 The creation invited to praise God.

- 1 FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise ;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.
- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord ;
Eternal truth attends thy word :
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more,
- 3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring ;
In songs of praise divinely sing ;
The great salvation loud proclaim,
And shout for joy the Saviour's name.
- 4 In every land begin the song ;
To every land the strains belong :
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,
And fill the world with loudest praise.

17 Solemn Reverence.

- 1 ETERNAL Power, whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God :
Infinite lengths, beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds :
- 2 Thee while the first archangel sings,
He hides his face behind his wings :
And ranks of shining thrones around
Fall worshiping, and spread the ground.
- 3 Lord, what shall earth and ashes do ?
We would adore our Maker too ;
From sin and dust to thee we cry,
The Great, the Holy, and the High.
- 4 Earth, from afar, hath heard thy fame,
And worms have learned to lisp thy name ;
But O ! the glories of thy mind
Leave all our soaring thoughts behind.
- 5 God is in heaven, and men below :
Be short our tunes ; our words be few ;
A solemn rev'rence checks our songs,
And praise sits silent on our tongues.

18 Doxology.

PRAISE God, from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Thus far the Lord hath led me on, Thus far his power prolongs my days ;

And every evening shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.

19 Evening.—Memorials of his grace.

- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home :
But he forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep ;
Peace is the pillow for my head ;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb.
With sweet salvation in the sound.

20 In hope, believing against hope.

- 1 AWAY, my unbelieving fear !
Fear shall in me no more have place ;
My Savior doth not yet appear,
He hides the brightness of his face :
But shall I therefore let him go,
And basely to the tempter yield ?
No, in the strength of Jesus, no,
I never will give up my shield.
- 2 In hope, believing against hope,
Jesus, my Lord, my God, I claim ;
Jesus, my strength, shall lift me up ;
Salvation is in Jesus' name.
To me he soon shall bring it nigh ;
My soul shall then outstrip the wind ;
On wings of love mount up on high,
And leave the world and sin behind.

21 His everlasting arms of love.

- 1 HOW do thy mercies close me round !
 Forever be thy name adored ;
 I blush in all things to abound ;
 The servant is above his Lord.
- 2 Inured to poverty and pain,
 A suff'ring life my Master led ;
 The Son of God the Son of man,
 He had not where to lay his head.
- 3 But lo ! a place he hath prepared
 For me, whom watchful angels keep ;
 Yea, he himself becomes my guard ;
 He smooths my bed, and gives me sleep.
- 4 Jesus protects ; my fears, begone :
 What can the Rock of Ages move ?
 Safe in thy arms I lay me down,—
 Thine everlasting arms of love.
- 5 While thou art intimately nigh,
 Who, who shall violate my rest ?
 Sin, earth, and hell, I now defy ;
 I lean upon my Saviour's breast.
- 6 I rest beneath the Almighty shade,
 My grief expires, my troubles cease ;
 Thou Lord, on whom my soul is stayed,
 Wilt keep me still in perfect peace.

22 Safety and security in the arms of Jesus.

- 1 GOD of my life, whose gracious power
 Through varied deaths my soul hath led,
 Or turned aside the fatal hour,
 Or lifted up my sinking head ;
- 2 In all my ways thy hand I own,—
 Thy ruling providence I see ;
 Assist me still my course to run,
 And still direct my paths to thee.
- 3 Whither, O whither should I fly,
 But to my loving Saviour's breast !
 Secure within thine arms to lie,
 And safe beneath thy wings to rest.
- 4 I have no skill the snare to shun,
 But thou, O Christ, my wisdom art ;
 I ever into ruin run,
 But thou art greater than my heart.
- 5 Foolish, and impotent and blind,
 Lead me a way I have not known ;
 Bring me where I my heaven may find,—
 The heaven of loving thee alone.

2. My feeble mind sus - tain, By worldly thoughts oppressed ;

From all en - tanglements beneath, Call off my peaceful heart ;
Appear, and bid me turn again, To my e - ter - nal rest.

23 The Spirit of prayer.

- 3 Swift to my rescue come ;
Thine own this moment seize ;
Gather my wand'ring spirit home,
And keep in perfect peace :
- 4 Suffered no more to rove
'O'er all the earth abroad,
Arrest the pris'ner of thy love
And shut me up in God.

24 Alone in heaven.

- 1 FOREVER with the Lord !
Amen, so let it be !
Life from the dead is in that word,
'Tis immortality.
- 2 Here in the body pent,
Absent from him I roam ;
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
- 3 Forever with the Lord !
Father, if 't is thy will,
The promise of that faithful word,
E'en here to me fulfill.
- 4 So, when my latest breath
Shall rend the vail in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
- 5 Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
Forever with the Lord !

25 The Jubilee Trumpet.

3 Extol the Lamb of God,
The all-atoning Lamb;
Redemption in his blood
Throughout the world proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 Ye slaves of sin and hell,
Your liberty receive,
And safe in Jesus dwell,
And blessed in Jesus live:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

5 Ye who have sold for naught
Your heritage above,
Shall have it back unbought,
The gift of Jesus' love:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

The bleeding sa - cri - fice In my behalf appears :

fore the throne my Surety stands, My name is written on his hands.

My name is writ - - - - ten on his hands.

My name is written on his hands.

26 "Abba, Father."

- 2 He ever lives above,
For me to intercede ;
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood, to plead ;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.
- 3 Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Received on Calvary ;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly plead for me :—
Forgive him, O forgive, they cry,
Nor let that ransomed sinner die.
- 4 The Father hears him pray,
His dear anointed One :
He can not turn away
The presence of his Son :
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

- 5 My God is reconciled ;
 His pard'ning voice I hear :
 He owns me for his child ;
 I can no longer fear :
 With confidence I now draw nigh,
 And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

27 Parting, to meet again.

- 1 JESUS, accept the praise
 That to thy Name belongs ;
 Matter of all our lays,
 Subject of all our songs ;
 Through thee we now together came,
 And part exulting in thy Name.
- 2 There we shall meet again,
 When all our toils are o'er,
 And death, and grief, and pain,
 And parting are no more :
 We shall with all our brethren rise,
 And see thee in the flaming skies.
- 3 O happy, happy day,
 That calls thy exiles home ;
 The heavens shall pass away,
 The earth receive its doom :
 Earth we shall view, and heaven, destroy'd,
 And shout above the fiery void.

28 Joyful homage.

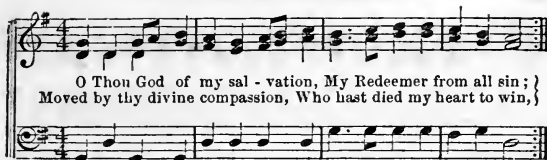

- 1 AWAKE, ye saints, awake !
 And hail this sacred day :
 In loftiest songs of praise
 Your joyful homage pay :
 Come bless the day that God hath blest,
 The type of heaven's eternal rest.
- 2 On this auspicious morn
 The Lord of life arose ;
 He burst the bars of death,
 And vanquished all our foes ;
 And now he pleads our cause above,
 And reaps the fruit of all his love.
- 3 All hail, triumphant Lord !
 Heaven with hosannas rings,
 And earth, in humbler strains,
 Thy praise responsive sings :
 Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
 Through endless years to live and reign.

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy, Weak and wounded, sick and sore ;

29 The invitation.

- 2 Now ye needy, come and welcome ;
 God's free bounty glorify ;
 True belief and true repentance,—
 Every grace that brings you nigh,—
 Without money,
 Come to Jesus Christ and buy.
- 3 Let not conscience make you linger ;
 Nor of fitness fondly dream :
 All the fitness he requireth
 Is to feel your need of him :
 This he gives you,—
 'Tis the Spirit's glimm'ring beam.
- 4 Come, ye weary, heavy laden,
 Bruised and mangled by the fall ;
 If you tarry till you 're better,
 You will never come at all ;
 Not the righteous,—
 Sinners Jesus came to call.
- 5 Lo ! th' incarnate God, ascending,
 Pleads the merit of his blood :
 Venture on him,—venture freely ;
 Let no other trust intrude :
 None but Jesus
 Can do helpless sinners good.

O Thou God of my sal - vation, My Redeemer from all sin ; }
 Moved by thy divine compassion, Who hast died my heart to win, }

I will praise thee, I will praise thee, When shall I thy praise begin ?

30 Halleluiah.

- 2 Though unseen, I love the Saviour ;
 He hath brought salvation near ;
 Manifests his pard'ning favor ;
 And when Jesus doth appear,
 Soul and body
 Shall his glorious image bear.
- 3 While the angel choirs are crying,—
 Glory to the great I AM,
 I with them will still be vying—
 Glory ! glory to the Lamb !
 O how precious
 Is the sound of Jesus' name !
- 4 Angels now are hov'ring round us,
 Unperceived amid the throng ;
 Wond'ring at the love that crown'd us,
 Glad to join the holy song :
 Halleluiah,
 Love and praise to Christ belong !

31 Doxology.

MAY the grace of Christ our Saviour,
 And the Father's boundless love,
 With the Holy Spirit's favor,
 Rest upon us from above :
 Thus may we abide in union
 With each other and the Lord ;
 And possess, in sweet communion,
 Joys which earth cannot afford.

Come, thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace :
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise. }
D. C. Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it, Mount of thy redeeming love.

D. C.

Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above ;

32 Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.

- 2 Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer ;
Hither by thy help I'm come ;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God ;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.
- 3 O! to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be !
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to thee :
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it—
Prone to leave the God I love ;
Here's my heart, O take and seal it ;
Seal it for thy courts above.

33 Heavenly joy anticipated.

- 1 IN thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near :
Teach us to rejoice with trembling :
Speak, and let thy servants hear :
Hear with meekness,—
Hear thy word with godly fear.
- 2 While our days on earth are lengthen'd,
May we give them, Lord, to thee :
Cheer'd by hope, and daily strengthen'd,
May we run, nor weary be ;
Till thy glory
Without cloud in heaven we see.

1. God is love, his mercy brightens All the path in which we move;
 2. Chance and change are busy ever; Worlds decay and ages move;

Bliss he grants, and woe he lightens; God is light, and God is love.
 But his mercy waneth never: God is light, and God is love.

34 God is light and love.

- 3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth,
 His unchanging goodness proves;
 From the cloud his brightness streameth;
 God is light, and God is love.
- 4 He our earthly cares entwineth
 With his comforts from above;
 Everywhere his glory shineth:
 God is light, and God is love.

35 Dismission.

- 1 LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing,
 Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
 Let us each thy love possessing,
 Triumph in redeeming grace;
 O refresh us,
 Traveling through this wilderness.
- 2 Thanks we give and adoration
 For thy gospel's joyful sound;
 May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound;
 May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.
- 3 So, whene'er the signal's given,
 Us from earth to call away;
 Borne on angel's wings to heaven,
 Glad the summons we obey—
 May we ever
 Reign with Christ in endless day.

Come, humble sinner, in whose breast A thousand thoughts revolve ;

Come, with your guilt and fear oppressed, And make this last resolve.

36 The resolution.

- 2 I'll go to Jesus, though my sin
Like mountains round me close ;
I know his courts, I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.
- 3 Prostrate I'll lie before his throne,
And there my guilt confess ;
I'll tell him, I'm a wretch undone
Without his sov'reign grace.
- 4 Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer ;
But, if I perish, I will pray,
And perish only there.
- 5 I can but perish, if I go,
I am resolved to try ;
For if I stay away, I know
I must forever die.

37 Lamenting the absence of the Spirit.

- 1 O FOR a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame ;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew,
When first I saw the Lord ?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word ?
- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed !
How sweet their mem'ry still !
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

- 4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest :
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

38 Deliverance at hand.

- 1 MY span of life will soon be done,
The passing moments say ;
As length'ning shadows o'er the mead,
Proclaim the close of day.
- 2 O that my heart might dwell aloof
From all created things ;
And learn that wisdom from above,
Whence true contentment springs,
- 3 Courage, my soul ; thy bitter cross,
In every trial here,
Shall bear thee to thy heaven above,
But shall not enter there.
- 4 Soon will the toilsome strife be o'er,
Of sublunary care,
And life's dull vanities no more
This anxious breast insnare.
- 5 Courage, my soul ; on God rely ;
Deliv'rance soon will come ;
A thousand ways has Providence
To bring believers home.

39 Suffer little children to come unto me.

- 1 SEE, Israel's gentle Shepherd stands
With all-engaging charms ;
Hark, how he calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in his arms.
- 2 Permit them to approach, he cries,
Nor scorn their humble name ;
For 't was to bless such souls as these
The Lord of angels came.
- 3 We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
And yield them up to thee ;
Joyful that we ourselves are thine,
Thine let our offspring be.

The voice of free grace cries, Escape to the mountain, For Adam's lost race, Christ hath opened a fount-ain;

For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression, His blood flows most freely in streams of sal-va-tion.

praise him a - gain when we pass o - ver Jor-dan.

40 The voice of free grace.

- 2 Now glory to God in the highest is given ;
 Now glory to God is re-echoed in heaven ;
 Around the whole earth let us tell the glad story,
 And sing of his love, his salvation and glory.
 Halleluiah to the Lamb, etc.
- 3 O Jesus, ride on, thy kingdom is glorious ;
 O'er sin, death, and hell, thou wilt make us victorious :
 Thy name shall be praised in the great congregation,
 And saints shall ascribe unto thee their salvation.
 Halleluiah to the Lamb, etc.
- 4 When on Zion we stand, having gained the blest shore,
 With our harps in our hands, we will praise evermore :
 We'll range the blest fields on the banks of the river,
 And sing of redemption forever and ever.
 Halleluiah to the Lamb, etc.

"TO-DAY THE SAVIOUR CALLS."

1. To - day the Sav - iour calls! Ye wanderers, come!
 2. To - day the Sav - iour calls! For ref - uge fly;

O ye be - night - ed souls, Why long - er roam?
 The storm of vengeance falls, Ru - in is nigh.

41 The sinner invited.

- 3 To-day the Saviour calls!
 O, listen now!
 Within these sacred walls
 To Jesus bow.
- 4 The Spirit calls to-day!
 Yield to his power;
 O, grieve him not away!
 'Tis mercy's hour.

1. Father, I stretch my hands to thee; No
2. What did thine only Son endure, Be-oth - er help I know: If thou withdraw thy-fore I draw my breath! What pain, what la - bor self from me, Ah! whi - ther shall I go? to se - cure My soul from end - less death!

42 Unwearied earnestness.

- 3 O Jesus, could I this believe,
I now should feel thy power;
And all my wants thou wouldst relieve,
In this accepted hour.
- 4 Author of faith! to thee I lift
My weary, longing eyes:
O let me now receive that gift,—
My soul without it dies.
- 5 Surely thou canst not let me die;
O speak and I shall live;
And here I will unwearied lie,
Till thou thy Spirit give.
- 6 How would my fainting soul rejoice,
Could I but see thy face;
Now let me hear thy quick'ning voice,
And taste thy pardoning grace.

1. When rising from the bed of death, O'erwhelmed with guilt and fear,
2. If yet, while pardon may be found, And mercy may be sought,

I view my Ma-ker face to face, O, how shall I ap - pear.
My soul with inward horror shrinks, And trembles at the thought;

43 Timely penitence.

- 3 When thou, O Lord, shalt stand disclosed
In majesty severe,
And sit in judgment on my soul,—
O how shall I appear ?
- 4 O may my broken, contrite heart,
Timely my sins lament ;
And early, with repentant tears,
Eternal wo prevent.

44 Secrets of the heart made known.

- 1 AND must I be to judgment brought,
And answer in that day
For every vain and idle thought,
And every word I say ?
- 2 Yes, every secret of my heart
Shall shortly be made known,
And I receive my just desert
For all that I have done.
- 3 How careful, then, ought I to live ;
With what religious fear ;
Who such a strict account must give
For my behavior here.
- 4 Thou awful Judge of quick and dead,
The watchful power bestow ;
So shall I to my ways take heed,—
To all I speak or do.
- 5 If now thou standest at the door,
O let me feel thee near ;
And make my peace with God, before
I at thy bar appear.

While life prolongs its precious light, Mercy is found and peace is given,

But soon, ah soon, approaching night Shall blot out ev'ry hope of heav'n.

45 The accepted time.

- 2 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing,
Shall death command you to the grave.
Before his bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear or save.
- 3 In that lone land of deep despair,
No Sabbath's heavenly light shall rise—
No God regard your bitter prayer,
No Saviour call you to the skies.
- 4 Now God invites; how blessed the day!
How sweet the Gospel's charming sound;
Come, sinners, haste, O haste away,
While yet a pard'ning God is found.

46 Dying, rising, reigning.

- 1 HE dies! the Friend of sinners dies!
Lo! Salem's daughters weep around;
A solemn darkness veils the skies,
A sudden trembling shakes the ground:
- 2 Come, saints, and drop a tear or two
For him who groan'd beneath your load;
He shed a thousand drops for you,—
A thousand drops of richer blood.
- 3 Here 's love and grief beyond degree:
The Lord of glory dies for man!
But lo! what sudden joys we see;
Jesus the dead, revives again.
- 4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high your great Deliv'rer reigns;
Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell,
And led the monster death in chains.

God of my life, to thee I call; Afflicted, at thy feet I fall;
 When the great water-floods prevail, Leave not my trembling heart to [fail.]

47 Jesus, the friend of the friendless.

- 2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
 Where should I lodge my deep complaint?
 Where, but with thee, whose open door
 Invites the helpless and the poor.
- 3 Did ever mourner plead with thee,
 And thou refuse that mourner's plea?
 Does not the promise still remain,
 That none shall seek thy face in vain?
- 4 Poor I may be—despised, forgot,
 Yet God, my God, forgets me not;
 And he is safe, and must succeed,
 For whom the Saviour deigns to plead.

48 A blessing for those who mourn.

- 1 DEEM not that they are blessed alone
 Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
 For God, who pities man, has shown
 A blessing for the eyes that weep.
- 2 The light of smiles shall fill again
 The lids that overflow with tears;
 And weary hours of woe and pain,
 And promises of happier years.
- 3 There is a day of sunny rest,
 For every dark and troubled night;
 Though grief may bide an evening guest,
 Yet joy shall come with early light.
- 4 For God has mark'd each sorrowing day,
 And number'd every secret tear;
 And heaven's eternal bliss shall pay
 For all his children suffer here.

And can I yet de-lay My lit-tle all to give?

To tear my soul from earth away, For Jesus to re-ceive?

49 Embracing the all-sufficient portion.

- 2 Nay, but I yield, I yield ;
I can hold out no more :
I sink by dying love compell'd,
And own thee conqueror.
- 3 Though late, I all forsake ;
My friends, my all, resign ;
Gracious Redeemer, take, O take,
And seal me ever thine.
- 4 Come, and possess me whole,
Nor hence again remove ;
Settle and fix my wav'ring soul
With all thy weight of love.
- 5 My one desire be this,—
Thy only love to know ;
To seek and taste no other bliss,—
No other good below.
- 6 My life, my portion there ;
Thou all-sufficient art ;
My hope, my heavenly treasure, now
Enter, and keep my heart.

50 The Redeemer's tears.

- 1 DID Christ o'er sinners weep,
And shall our cheeks be dry ?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye.
- 2 The Son of God in tears
The wond'ring angels see ;
Be thou astonished, O my soul,
He shed those tears for thee.

- 3 He wept that we might weep ;
 Each sin demands a tear :
 In heaven alone no sin is found,
 And there 's no weeping there.

51 The horrors of the second death.

- 1 O WHERE shall rest be found,—
 Rest for the weary soul ?
 'Twere vain the ocean's depths to sound,
 Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
 The bliss for which we sigh ;
 'Tis not the whole of life to live,
 Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
 There is a life above,
 Unmeasured by the flight of years ;
 And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death whose pang
 Outlasts the fleeting breath :
 O what eternal horrors hang Around the second death !
- 5 Thou God of truth and grace !
 Teach us that death to shun ;
 Lest we be banish'd from thy face,
 For evermore undone.

52 Our fathers, where are they ?

- 1 HOW swift the torrent rolls
 That bears us to the sea :
 The tide that hurries thoughtless souls
 To vast eternity.
- 2 Our fathers, where are they,
 With all they call'd their own ?
 Their joys and griefs, and hopes and cares,
 And wealth and honor, gone.
- 3 God of our fathers, hear,
 Thou everlasting Friend !
 While we, as on life's utmost verge,
 Our souls to thee commend.
- 4 Of all the pious dead
 May we the footsteps trace,
 Till with them, in the land of light,
 We dwell before thy face.

Show pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive; Let a repenting rebel live.

Are not thy mercies large and free? May not a sinner trust in thee

53 Condemned, but pleading the promises.

- 2 My crimes are great, but don't surpass
The power and glory of thy grace.
Great God, thy nature hath no bound,
So let thy pard'ning grace be found.
- 3 O wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offenses pain my eyes.
- 4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hov'ring round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,—
Some sure support against despair.

54 The light yoke and easy burden.

- 1 O, THAT my load of sin were gone,
O that I could at last submit
At Jesus' feet to lay it down,
To lay my soul at Jesus' feet!
- 2 Rest for my soul I long to find;
Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
And stamp thine image on my heart.
- 3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin,
And fully set my spirit free;
I cannot rest till pure within,
Till I am wholly lost in thee.
- 4 Fain would I learn of thee, my God:
Thy light and easy burden prove,
The cross, all stained with hallowed blood
The labor of thy dying love.

Stay, thou insulted Spirit, stay, Though I have done thee such despite,

Nor cast the sinner quite away, Nor take thine everlasting flight.

55 Deprecating the withdrawal of the Spirit.

- 1 STAY, thou insulted Spirit, stay,
 Though I have done thee such despite;
 Nor cast the sinner quite away,
 Nor take thine everlasting flight.
- 2 Though I have steeled my stubborn heart,
 And shaken off my guilty fears;
 And vex'd, and urged thee to depart,
 For many long rebellious years.
- 3 Though I have most unfaithful been,
 Of all who e'er thy grace received;
 Ten thousand times thy goodness seen;
 Ten thousand times thy goodness grieved;
- 4 Yet, O! the chief of sinners spare,
 In honor of my great High Priest;
 Nor in thy righteous anger swear
 To exclude me from thy people's rest.

56 The dreadful day.

- 1 THE day of wrath, that dreadful day,
 When heaven and earth shall pass away!
 What power shall be the sinner's stay?
 How shall he meet that dreadful day—
- 2 When, shriv'ling like a parched scroll,
 The flaming heavens together roll;
 And louder yet, and yet more dread,
 Swells the high trump that wakes the dead?
- 3 O, on that day that wrathful day,
 When man to judgment wakes from clay,
 Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
 Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

Come, O thou Trav - el - er un - known,

Whom still I hold, but can not see; My com - pa - ny be - fore is gone, And I am left a - lone with thee: With thee all night I mean to stay, And wrestle till the break of day.

57 Wrestling Jacob.

- 2 I need not tell thee who I am ;
 My sin and misery declare :
 Thyself hast called me by my name ;
 Look on thy hands, and read it there ;
 But who, I ask thee, who art thou ?
 Tell me thy name, and tell me now.
- 3 Wilt thou not yet to me reveal
 Thy new, unutterable name ?
 Tell me, I still beseech thee, tell ;
 To know it now resolved I am :
 Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
 Till I thy name, thy nature know.
- 4 Yield to me now, for I am weak,
 But confident in self-despair ;
 Speak to my heart, in blessings speak ;
 Be conquer'd by my instant prayer :
 Speak, or thou never hence shalt move,
 And tell me if thy name be Love.
- 5 'Tis Love ! 'tis Love ! thou diedst for me ;
 I hear thy whisper in my heart ;
 The morning breaks, the shadows flee ;
 Pure, universal Love thou art :
 To me, to all, thy bowels move,—
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.

58 The dominion of sin destroyed.

- 1 PRIS'NERS of hope, lift up your heads ;
 The day of liberty draws near ;
 Jesus who on the serpent treads,
 Shall soon in your behalf appear.
 The Lord will to his temple come ;
 Prepare your hearts to make him room.
- 2 Ye all shall find him, in whose word
 You have been caused to put your trust ;
 The Father of our dying Lord
 Is ever to his promise just ;
 Faithful, if we our sins confess,
 To cleanse from all unrighteousness.
- 3 O ye of fearful hearts, be strong !
 Your downcast eyes and hands lift up !
 Ye shall not be forgotten long ;
 Hope to the end, in Jesus hope !
 Tell him ye wait his grace to prove ;
 And cannot fail, if God is love.

Je - sus, let thy pity - ing eye Call back a wand'ring sheep;

False to thee, like Pe - ter, I, Would fain like Peter weep.
D. S. Turn, and look up - on me, Lord, And break my heart of stone.

Let me be by grace restored; On me be all long-suff'ring shown.

59 Humility and Contrition.

- 2 Saviour, Prince, enthroned above,
Repentance to impart,
Give me through thy dying love,
The humble, contrite heart;
Give what I have long implored,
A portion of thy grief unknown;
Turn, and look upon me, Lord,
And break my heart of stone.
- 3 For thine own compassion's sake,
The gracious wonder show;
Cast my sins behind thy back,
And wash me white as snow;
If thy bowels now are stirr'd,
If now I do myself bemoan,
Turn and look upon me, Lord,
And break my heart of stone.

60 Jesus crucified.

- 1 VAIN, delusive world, adieu,
With all of creature good:

Only Jesus I pursue,
 Who bought me with his blood :
 All thy pleasure I forego ;
 I trample on thy wealth and pride ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

2 Here will I set up my rest ;
 My fluctuating heart
 From the haven of his breast
 Shall nevermore depart :
 Whither should a sinner go ?
 His wounds for me stand open wide ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

3 Him to know is life and peace,
 And pleasure without end ;
 This is all my happiness,
 On Jesus to depend ;
 Daily in his grace to grow,
 And ever in his faith abide ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

4 O that I could all invite,
 This saving truth to prove ;
 Show the length, the breadth, the height,
 And depth of Jesus' love !
 Fain I would to sinners show
 The blood by faith alone applied ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

61 Speak the word.

1 EVER fainting with desire,
 For thee, O Christ, I call ;
 Thee I restlessly require ;
 I want my good, my all.
 Jesus, dear redeeming Lord,
 I wait thy coming from above ;
 Help me, Saviour, speak the word,
 And perfect me in love.

2 Wilt thou suffer me to go
 Lamenting all my days ?
 Shall I never, never know
 Thy sanctifying grace ?
 Wilt thou not thy light afford ?
 The darkness from my soul remove ?
 Help me, Saviour, speak the word,
 And perfect me in love.

ARRANGED BY T. C. O'KANE.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, Come un - to me and rest :

Lay down, thou weary one, lay down Thy head upon my breast.
I found in him a resting-place, And he has made me glad.

I came to Jesus as I was, Weary, and worn, and sad,

62 "I will give you rest."

- 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Behold I freely give
The living water ; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink and live.
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream ;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.
- 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
I am this dark world's light,
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright.
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In him my Star, my Sun ;
And in that light of life I'll walk,
Till traveling days are done.

1. How sweet the name of Je - sus sounds In a be - liever's ear ;
2. It makes the wounded spirit whole, And calms the troubled breast ;

It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds, And drives away his fear.
'Tis manna to the hungry soul, And to the weary, rest.

63 The precious Name.

- 3 Dear Name, the rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place ;
My never-failing treasure, fill'd
With boundless stores of grace :
- 4 I would thy boundless love proclaim
With every fleeting breath ;
So shall the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

64 Mourning departed joys.

- 1 SWEET was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pard'ning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.
- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue ;
And when the evening shades prevailed,
His love was all my song.
- 3 In prayer my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine ;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.
- 4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns ;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.
- 5 Rise, Lord, and help me to prevail ;
O make my soul thy care ;
I know thy mercy cannot fail ;—
Let me that mercy share.

Of Him who did sal - va - tion bring, I could for-ev - er think and sing; A - rise, ye need - y, he'll re - lieve; A - rise, ye guilt - y, he'll forgive.

65 Love which passeth knowledge.

- 2 Ask but his grace, and lo, 't is given;
Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven:
Though sin and sorrow wound my soul,
Jesus, thy balm will make it whole.
- 3 To shame our sins he blushed in blood;
He closed his eyes to show us God:
Let all the world fall down and know,
That none but God such love can show.
- 4 'Tis thee I love, for thee alone
I shed my tears and make my moan:
Where'er I am, where'er I move,
I meet the object of my love.
- 5 Insatiate to this spring I fly;
I drink, and yet am ever dry:
Ah! who against thy charms is proof?
Ah! who that loves can love enough?

Lord, how secure and blest are they Who feel the joys of pardon'd sin ;

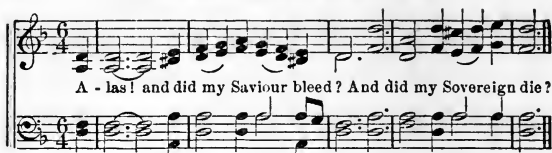

Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea, Their minds have heaven [and peace within.]

66 The bliss of assurance.

- 2 The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love ;
And soft, and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.
- 3 Quick as their thoughts, their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away :
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.
- 4 How oft they look to th' heavenly hills,
Where groves of living pleasure grow ;
And longing hopes, and cheerful smiles,
Sit undisturbed upon their brow.
- 5 They scorn to seek earth's golden toys,
But spend the day, and share the night,
In numb'ring o'er the richer joys
That Heaven prepares for their delight.

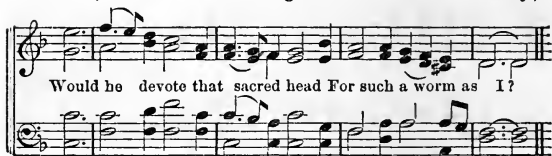

67 Thirsting for the fullness of love.

- 1 I THIRST, thou wounded Lamb of God,
To wash me in thy cleansing blood ;
To dwell within thy wounds ; then pain
Is sweet, and life or death is gain.
- 2 Take my poor heart, and let it be Forever closed to all but thee :
Seal thou my breast, and let me wear
That pledge of love forever there.
- 3 How blest are they who still abide
Close sheltered in thy bleeding side !
Who thence their life and strength derive,
And by thee move, and in thee live.

A - las! and did my Saviour bleed? And did my Sovereign die?

Chorus. O, the Lamb! the bleeding Lamb! The Lamb on Calvary;

Would he devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

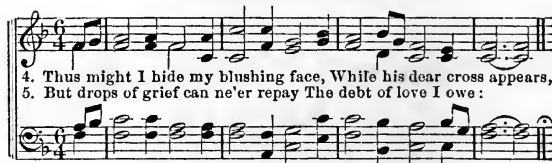

The Lamb that was slain has risen again, To intercede for me.

68 Godly sorrow at the cross.

2 Was it for crimes that I have done,
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

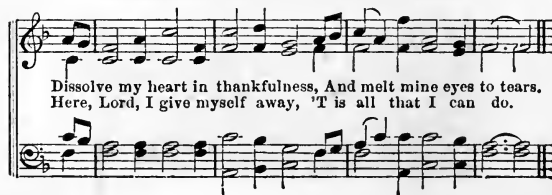

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died,
For man, the creature's sin.

REMEMBER ME.

4. Thus might I hide my blushing face, While his dear cross appears,
5. But drops of grief can ne'er repay The debt of love I owe:

Chorus. Remember me, remember me, Dear Lord, remember me.

Dissolve my heart in thankfulness, And melt mine eyes to tears.
Here, Lord, I give myself away, 'T is all that I can do.

There is a fountain fill'd with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins, And sinner plunged beneath that flood Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all [their guilty stains.]

69 Efficacy of the atoning blood.

- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.
- 3 Thou dying Lamb! thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Are saved, to sin no more.
- 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be, till I die.

IMMANUEL. ARR. BY T. C. O'KANE.

5. Then in a nobler, sweeter song, I'll sing thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stamm'ring tongue, Lies silent in the grave.

Lies si - lent in the grave, Lies si - lent in the grave.

How tedious and tasteless the hours, When Jesus no longer I see!

Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers, Have all lost their [sweetness to me.]

The midsummer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to [look gay ;

But when I am happy in him, December 's as pleasant as May.

70 All-sufficiency of Jesus.

- 2 His Name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice ;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice ;
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear ;
No mortal so happy as I,—
My summer would last all the year.
- 3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resign'd,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind :

While blest with a sense of his love,
 A palace a toy would appear;
 And prisons would palaces prove,
 If Jesus would dwell with me there.

- 4 My Lord, if indeed I am thine,
 If thou art my sun and my song,
 Say, why do I languish and pine?
 And why are my winters so long?
 O drive these dark clouds from my sky;
 Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
 Or take me to thee up on high,
 Where winter and clouds are no more.

71 Longing for the heavenly fellowship.

- 1 YE angels, who stand round the throne,
 And view my Immanuel's face,
 In rapturous songs make him known;
 Tune, tune your soft harps to his praise:
 He formed you the spirits you are,
 So happy, so noble, so good;
 When others sunk down in despair,
 Confirmed by his power, ye stood.
- 2 Ye saints, who stand nearer than they,
 And cast your bright crowns at his feet,
 His grace and his glory display,
 And all his rich mercy repeat:
 He snatched you from hell and the grave—
 He ransomed from death and despair,
 For you he was mighty to save,
 Almighty to bring you safe there.
- 3 O, when will the period appear,
 When I shall unite in your song?
 I'm weary of lingering here,
 And I to your Saviour belong!
 I'm fettered and chained up in clay;
 I struggle and pant to be free;
 I long to be soaring away,
 My God and my Saviour to see.
- 4 I want to put on my attire,
 Washed white in the blood of the Lamb;
 I want to be one of your choir,
 And tune my sweet harp to his name;
 I want—O, I want to be there,
 Where sorrow and sin bid adieu,
 Your joy and your friendship to share,
 To wonder and worship with you!

Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy better portion trace : }
Rise from transitory things, Toward heaven, thy native place ; }

Sun, and moon, and stars decay, Time shall soon this earth remove ;

Rise, my soul, and haste a - way To seats prepared above.

72 The better portion.

- 2 Rivers to the ocean run ;
Nor stay in all their course ;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun ;
Both speed them to their source :
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face ;
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.
- 3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn ;
Press onward to the prize ;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies ;
There we'll join the heavenly train,
Welcomed to partake the bliss ;
Fly from sorrow, care, and pain,
To realms of endless peace.

DR. T. HASTINGS.

My faith looks up to thee, Thou Lamb of Cal - va - ry:

Sav - iour di - vine, Now hear me while I pray; Take all my guilt a - way; O let me, from this day, Be wholly thine.

73 For the Saviour's guidance.

- 2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart;
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be—
A living fire.
- 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my Guide;
Bid darkness turn to day;
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.
- 4 When ends life's transient dream;
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distress remove;
O, bear me safe above,—
A ransom'd soul.

I'm but a stranger here, Heav'n is my home ; } Danger and sorrow stand,
Earth is a desert drear, Heav'n is my home. }

Round me on every hand ; Heav'n is my fatherland, Heav'n is my home.

74 Heaven is my home.

2 What though the tempest rage ?

Heaven is my home ;
Short is my pilgrimage—
Heaven is my home :
Time's cold and wintry blast
Soon will be over-past ;
I shall reach home at last—
Heaven is my home.

3 There at my Saviour's side,

Heaven is my home ;
I shall be glorified—
Heaven is my home :
There are the good and blest,
Those I loved most and best ;
There, too, I soon shall rest—
Heaven is my home.

75 Nearer to thee.

1 NEARER, my God, to thee,—

Nearer to thee !
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me ;
Still all my song shall be,

Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !

2 Though like a wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness comes over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !

3 There let my way appear
Steps unto heaven ;
All that thou sendest me
In mercy given ;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, to thee !

4 And when on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly ;
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee !

76 Help implored.

1 A CROWN of glory bright,
By faith I see,
In yonder realms of light,
Prepared for me :
O may I faithful prove,
And keep them in my view ;
And thro' the storms of life
My way pursue.

2 Jesus, be thou my guide,
My steps attend ;
O keep me near thy side,
Be thou my friend ;
Be thou my shield and sun,
My Saviour and my guard ;
And, when my work is done,
My great reward.

A charge to keep I have, A God to glo - ri - fy,

A nev - er - dy - ing soul to save, And fit it for the sky.

77 For diligence and watchfulness.

- 1 A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify ;
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill,—
O may it all my powers engage,
To do my Master's will.
- 3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live ;
And O, thy servant, Lord, prepare,
A strict account to give.
- 4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

78 Sympathy and mutual love.

- 1 BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love ;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers ;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,—
Our comforts and our cares.

- 3 We share our mutual woes ;
Our mutual burdens bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain :
But we shall still be join'd in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way ;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin we shall be free :
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

79 Meeting after absence.

- 1 AND are we yet alive,
And see each other's face ?
Glory and praise to Jesus give,
For his redeeming grace.
- 2 Preserved by power divine
To full salvation here,
Again in Jesus' praise we join,
And in his sight appear.
- 3 What troubles have we seen !
What conflicts have we passed !
Fightings without and fears within,
Since we assembled last !
- 4 But out of all the Lord
Hath brought us by his love ;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above.
- 5 Then let us make our boast,
Of his redeeming power,
Which saves us to the uttermost,
Till we can sin no more :
- 6 Let us take up the cross,
Till we the crown obtain ;
And gladly reckon all things loss,
So we may Jesus gain.

Am I a sol - dier of the cross, A fol - wer of the Lamb? And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name?

80 Faith sees the final triumph.

- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flow'ry beds of ease;
While others fought to win the prize,
And sail'd through bloody seas?
- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
- 4 Since I must fight if I would reign,
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 5 Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die:
They see the triumph from afar,—
By faith they bring it nigh.
- 6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of vict'ry through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

81 For victorious faith.

- 1 O FOR a faith that will not shrink,
Though pressed by every foe,
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe ;—
- 2 That will not murmur or complain
Beneath the chast'ning rod,
But in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God ;—
- 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without ;
That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt ;
- 4 That bears, unmoved, the world's dread frown,
Nor heeds its scornful smile ;
That seas of trouble cannot drown,
Nor Satan's arts beguile ;—
- 5 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Illumes a dying bed.
- 6 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

82 His amazing love.

- 1 PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheering beam of hope,
Or spark of glimm'ring day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of peace
Beheld our helpless grief ;
He saw, and (O, amazing love !)
He flew to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above,
With joyful haste he fled ;
Enter'd the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O, for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break ;
And all harmonious human tongues,
The Saviour's praises speak.
- 5 Angels, assist our mighty joys ;
Strike all your harps of gold ;
But when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.

Give to the winds thy fears; Hope, and be undismayed; God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears; God shall lift up thy head.

83 He ruleth all things well.

- 2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time, so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Still heavy is thy heart?
Still sink thy spirits down?
Cast off the weight,—let fear depart,
And every care be gone.
- 4 Leave to his sovereign sway
To choose and to command:
So shalt thou, wond'ring, own his way,
How wise, how strong his hand!
- 5 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work hath wrought
That caused thy needless fear.

84 Delight in ordinances.

- 1 WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes!
- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

If on a qui - et sea, T'ward heaven we calmly sail,

With grateful hearts, O God, to thee, We'll own the fav'ring gale.

85 Walking by faith.

- 2 But should the surges rise,
And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.
- 3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to thy control:
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.
- 4 Teach us, in every state,
To make thy will our own;
And when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

86 Rejoicing in Christ's restoring love.

- 1 O SPEAK that word again;
It cheers my drooping heart;
How sweetly doth it soothe my pain,
And bid my fears depart.
- 2 And dost thou deign to own
A worm so vile as I?
And may I still approach thy throne,
And Abba, Father, cry?
- 3 My Saviour, by his word,
Hath turned my night to day;
And all those heavenly joys restored,
Which I had sinn'd away.
- 4 I wonder and adore;
The grace is all divine;
Lord, keep me, that I sin no more
Against such love as thine.

My soul, be on thy guard; Ten thousand foes arise;

The hosts of sin are pressing hard To draw thee from the skies.

87 Perseverance.

- 2 O watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the vict'ry won,
Nor lay thine armor down:
The work of faith will not be done,
Till thou obtain the crown.
- 4 Then persevere till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
To his divine abode.

88 Knowledge of forgiveness.

- 1 HOW can a sinner know
His sins on earth forgiven?
How can my gracious Saviour show
My name inscribed in heaven?
- 2 What we have felt and seen
With confidence we tell;
And publish to the sons of men,
The signs infallible.
- 3 We who in Christ believe
That he for us hath died,
We all his unknown peace receive,
And feel his blood applied
- 4 Exults our rising soul,
Disburden'd of her load,
And swells, unutterably full
Of glory and of God.

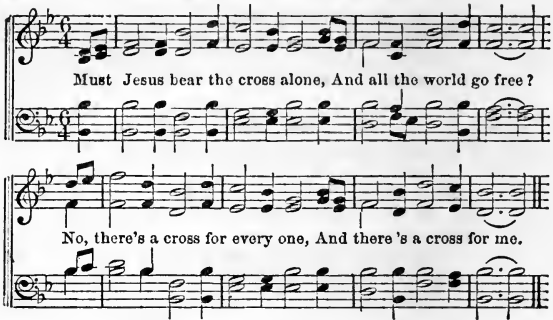

- 5 Stronger than death or hell
 The sacred power we prove ;
 And, conqu'rors of the world, we dwell
 In heaven, who dwell in love.

89 Glorious liberty.

- 1 O COME, and dwell in me,
 Spirit of power within ;
 And bring the glorious liberty
 From sorrow, fear, and sin !
- 2 The seed of sin's disease,
 Spirit of health, remove,—
 Spirit of finished holiness,
 Spirit of perfect love.
- 3 Hasten the joyful day
 Which shall my sins consume,
 When old things shall be done away,
 And all things new become.
- 4 I want the witness, Lord,
 That all I do is right,—
 According to thy will and word,—
 Well pleasing in thy sight.
- 5 I ask no higher state ;
 Indulge me but in this,
 And soon or later then translate
 To my eternal bliss.

90 The eternal Sabbath.

- 1 HAIL to the Sabbath-day !
 The day divinely given,
 When men to God their homage pay,
 And earth draws near to heaven.
- 2 Lord, in this sacred hour,
 Within thy courts we bend,
 And bless thy love, and own thy power,
 Our Father and our Friend.
- 3 But thou art not alone
 In courts by mortals trod ;
 Nor only is the day thine own
 When man draws near to God :—
- 4 Thy temple is the arch
 Of yon unmeasured sky ;
 Thy Sabbath, the stupendous march
 Of vast eternity.

Must Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for every one, And there's a cross for me.

91 Suffering and reigning.

- 2 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free,
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.
- 3 Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' pierced feet,
Joyful, I'll cast my golden crown,
And his dear name repeat.
- 4 And palms shall wave, and harps shall ring
Beneath heaven's arches high,
The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing,
That lives no more to die.
- 5 O precious cross! O glorious crown!
O resurrection day!
Ye angels, from the stars come down,
And bear my soul away.

92 The world has lost its charms.

- 1 LET worldly minds the world pursue;
It has no charms for me;
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace hath set me free.
- 2 As by the light of opening day
The stars are all conceal'd,
So earthly pleasures fade away,
When Jesus is reveal'd.
- 3 Creatures no more divide my choice;
I bid them all depart;
His name, his love, his gracious voice,
Have fix'd my roving heart.

Jesus, thine all-victorious love, Shed in my heart abroad : Then shall [my feet no longer rove, Rooted and fixed in God, Rooted and fixed in God.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The first system ends with a double bar line, and the second system continues the melody and accompaniment.

93 The refining fire of the Holy Spirit.

- 2 O that in me the sacred fire
Might now begin to glow ;
Burn up the dross of base desire,
And make the mountains flow.
- 3 O that it now from heaven might fall,
And all my sins consume :
Come, Holy Ghost, for thee I call ;
Spirit of burning, come.
- 4 Refining fire, go through my heart ;
Illuminate my soul ;
Scatter thy life through every part,
And sanctify the whole.
- 5 My steadfast soul, from falling free,
Shall then no longer move ;
While Christ is all the world to me,
And all my heart is love.

94 The joyful sound.

- 1 SALVATION ! O the joyful sound !
What pleasure to our ears :
A sov'reign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Salvation ! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.
- 3 Salvation ! O thou bleeding Lamb !
To thee the praise belongs :
Salvation shall inspire our hearts,
And dwell upon our tongues.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY C. DUNBAR.

BY PERMISSION.

We are out on the o-ccean, sail-ing, Homeward bound we sweetly glide; We are out on the o-ccean, sail-ing To a home be-yond the tide.

CHORUS.

All the storms will soon be o-ver, Then we'll anchor in the bar-bor. We are out on the ocean,

95 A home beyond the tide.

- 1 We are out on the ocean, sailing,
Homeward bound we sweetly glide;
We are out on the ocean, sailing
To a home beyond the tide.
All the storms will soon be over,
Then we'll anchor in the harbor
We are out on the ocean, sailing
To a home beyond the tide.
- 2 Millions now are safely landed
Over on the golden shore,
Millions more are on their journey,
Yet there's room for millions more.
All the storms, etc.
- 3 Come on board, and "ship" for glory,
Be in haste—make up your mind!
For our vessel's weighing anchor,
You will soon be left behind!
All the storms, etc.
- 4 You have kindred over yonder,
On that bright and happy shore,
By and by we'll swell the number,
When the toils of life are o'er.
All the storms, etc.
- 5 Spread your sails, while heavenly breezes
Gently waft our vessel on;
All on board are sweetly singing—
Free salvation is the song.
All the storms, etc.
- 6 When our bark is safely anchored,
Then we'll shout our trial o'er!
We will walk about the city,
And we'll sing for evermore.
All the storms, etc.

2. I'm a traveler to a land Where all is fair ; Where are seen no end is near, Soon I shall rest : Dark and dreary is the way, broken bands, All, all are there ; Where no tear shall ever fall,

Toiling I've come ; Ask me not with you to stay, Yonder's my home.
No heart be sad ; Where the glory is for all, And all are glad.

97 Lonely traveler.

- 3 I'm a traveler, and I go
Where all is fair ;
Farewell all I've loved below ;
I must be there.
Worldly honors, hopes, and gain,
All I resign ;
Welcome sorrow, grief, and pain,
If heaven be mine.
- 4 I'm a traveler ; call me not ;
Upward's my way ;
Yonder is my rest and lot ;
I cannot stay.
Farewell earthly pleasures all ;
Pilgrim I'll roam ;
Hail me not ; in vain you call ;
Yonder's my home.

When I can read my ti - tle clear, To mansions in the skies, I'll bid farewell to every fear, And wipe my weeping eyes,

And wipe my weeping eyes, And wipe my weeping eyes, I'll bid farewell to every fear, And wipe my weeping eyes.

98 Heavenly rest in anticipation.

- 2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.
- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
Let storms of sorrow fall,—
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

- 4 There I shall bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

99 A perfect heart the Redeemer's throne.

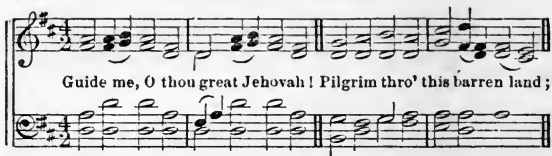

- 1 O FOR a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free ;—
A heart that always feels thy blood,
So freely spilt for me :—
- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne ;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,—
Where Jesus reigns alone.
- 3 O for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean ;
Which neither life nor death can part
From Him that dwells within :—
- 4 A heart in every thought renew'd,
And full of love divine ;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.
- 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart ;
Come quickly from above ;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of Love.

DR. T. HASTINGS.

When I can read my title clear, To mansions in the skies, I'll bid [farewell to every fear, And wipe my weeping eyes, And wipe my weeping eyes.

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah! Pilgrim thro' this barren land;

I am weak, but thou art mighty, Hold me with thy powerful hand:

Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more, Feed me till I want no more.

100 The pilgrim's Guide and Guardian.

- 2 Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow ;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar,
Lead me all my journey through :
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.
- 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside :
Bear me through the swelling current
Land me safe on Canaan's side :
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

REST FOR THE WEARY.

71

J. W. DADMAN.

ARRANGED BY T. C. O'KANE.

In the Christian's home in glory, There remains a land of rest,

There my Saviour's gone before me, To fulfill my soul's request ;

101 Rest for the weary.

- 2 He is fitting up my mansion,
Which eternally shall stand ;
For my stay shall not be transient,
In that holy, happy land.
- 3 Pain and sickness ne'er shall enter,
Grief nor woe my lot shall share,
But in that celestial center,
I a crown of life shall wear ;

CHORUS.—There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for the soul.
On the other side of Jordan,
In the Christian's home in glory,
Where the tree of life is blooming,
There is rest for the soul.

102 Glory to the Lamb.

- 1 HARK! the notes of angels, singing,
Glory, glory to the Lamb!
All in heaven their tribute bringing,
Raising high the Saviour's name,
- 2 Ye for whom his life was given,
Sacred themes to you belong :
Come, assist the choir of heaven,
Join the everlasting song.

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in his excellent word! What more can he say than to you he hath said, You who unto Jesus for refuge have fled, You who un - to Je - sus for refuge have fled.

103 The firm foundation.

- 2 Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
I, I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 3 When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of woe shall not thee overflow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

- 4 When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply ;
The flame shall not hurt thee, I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.
- 5 The soul that to Jesus has fled for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes ;
That soul, though all hell shall endeavor to shake,
I'll never,—no, never,—no, never forsake.

104 The sinner invited.

- 1 DELAY not, delay not ; O sinner ! draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee ;
No price is demanded, the Saviour is here,
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.
- 2 Delay not, delay not ; why longer abuse
The love and compassion of Jesus, thy God ?
A fountain is opened,—how canst thou refuse
To wash and be cleansed in his pardoning blood ?
- 3 Delay not, delay not ; the Spirit of grace,
Long grieved and resisted, may take its sad flight,
And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,—
To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

105 Jesus in the garden.

- 1 THOU sweet gliding Kedron, by thy silver stream,
Our Saviour would linger in moonlight's soft beam ;
And by thy bright waters till midnight would stay,
And lose in thy murmurs the toils of the day.
- 2 How damp were the vapors that fell on his head ;
How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed ;
The angels beholding, amazed at the sight,
Attended their Master with solemn delight.
- 3 O garden of Olives, thou dear honored spot,
The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot ;
The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.
- 4 Come, saints, and adore him ; come bow at his feet ;
O give him the glory, the praise that is meet ;
Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

106 Doxology.

O FATHER Almighty, to thee be addressed,
With Christ and the Spirit, one God, ever blest,
All glory and worship from earth, and from heaven,
As was, and is now, and shall ever be given.

1. When shall we meet a - gain, Meet ne'er to sever?
2. When shall love free - ly flow, Pure as life's river?

When will peace wreathe her chain Round us for - ev - er?
When shall sweet friendship glow Changeless for - ev - er?

Our hearts will ne'er repose, Safe from each blast that blows, In Where joys celestial thrill, Where bliss each heart shall fill, And this dark vale of woes, Nev - er, no, nev - er!

fears of part - ing chill, Nev - er, no, nev - er!

107 When shall we meet again.

- 3 Up to that world of light
Take us, dear Saviour!
May we all there unite
Happy forever!
Where kindred spirits dwell,
There may our music swell,
And time our joys dispel—
Never—no, never.

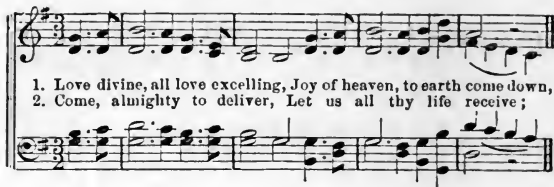

My days are gliding swiftly by, And I, a pilgrim stranger, Would not [detain them

as they fly, Those hours of toil and danger. For O! we stand on Jordan's [strand, Our friends are passing over, And just before, the shining shore We may [almost discover.

108 Here and There.

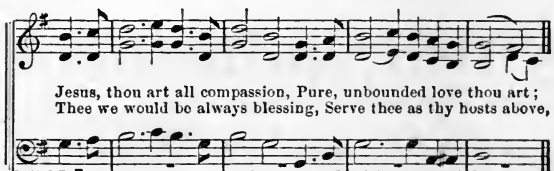

- 2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear,
Our heavenly home discerning;
Our absent Lord has left us word,
Let every lamp be burning.
For O! we stand, etc.
- 3 Should coming days be cold and dark,
We need not cease our singing;
That perfect rest naught can molest,
Where golden harps are ringing.
For O! we stand, etc.
- 4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow,
Each chord on earth to sever;
Our King says Come, and there's our home,
Forever, O forever.
For O! we stand, etc.

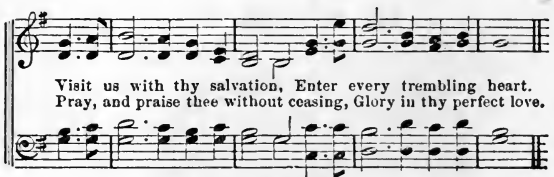

1. Love divine, all love excelling, Joy of heaven, to earth come down,
2. Come, almighty to deliver, Let us all thy life receive;

Fix in us thy humble dwelling, All thy faithful mercies crown.
Suddenly return, and never, Nevermore thy temples leave:

Jesus, thou art all compassion, Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Thee we would be always blessing, Serve thee as thy hosts above,

Visit us with thy salvation, Enter every trembling heart.
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing, Glory in thy perfect love.

109 The new creation.

- 3 Finish then thy new creation;
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in thee:
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,—
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

110 Thankfulness.

- 1 LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise thee,
 For the bliss thy love bestows ;
 For the pardoning grace that saves me,
 And the peace that from it flows :
 Help, O God, my weak endeavor ;
 This dull soul to rapture raise ;
 Thou must light the flame, or never
 Can my love be warmed to praise.
- 2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
 Wretched wanderer, far astray ;
 Found thee lost and kindly brought thee
 From the paths of death away ;
 Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
 Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
 And, the light of hope revealing,
 Bade the blood-stained cross appear.
- 3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
 Vainly would my lips express :
 Low before thy footstool kneeling,
 Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless :
 Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
 Love's pure flame within me raise ;
 And, since words can never measure,
 Let my life show forth thy praise.

111 Glorifying in the cross.

- 1 IN the cross of Christ I glory,
 Towering o'er the wrecks of time ;
 All the light of sacred story
 Gathers round its head sublime.
 When the woes of life o'ertake me
 Hopes deceive and fears annoy,
 Never shall the cross forsake me ;
 Lo ! it glows with peace and joy,
- 2 When the sun of bliss is beaming
 Light and love upon my way,
 From the cross the radiance streaming
 Adds new luster to the day.
 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
 By the cross are sanctified ;
 Peace is there that knows no measure,
 Joys that thro' all time abide.

In seasons of grief to my God I'll repair, When my heart is o'erwhelmed with sorrow and care, From the ends of the earth un - to thee will I cry, Lead me to the rock that is higher than I, Higher than I, Higher than I.

112 The Rock.

- 2 And when I have ended my pilgrimage here,
 In Jesus' pure righteousness let me appear,
 In the swellings of Jordan on thee I'll rely,
 And look to the rock that is higher than I.
- 3 And when the last trumpet shall sound through the skies,
 When the dead from the dust of the earth shall arise,
 With millions I'll join, far above yonder sky,
 To praise the dear rock that is higher than I.

Tho' troubles assail, and dangers affright, Tho' friends should all fail, and foes all u-nite, Yet one thing secures us, what-ev-er betide, The promise assures us, The Lord will provide.

113 The Lord will provide.

- 2 The birds, without barn or storehouse, are fed ;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread :
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied,
So long as 't is written,—The Lord will provide.
- 3 When Satan appears to stop up our path,
And fills us with fear, we triumph by faith ;
He cannot take from us (though oft he has tried)
The heart-cheering promise,—The Lord will provide.
- 4 He tells us we're weak,—our hope is in vain ;
The good that we seek we ne'er shall obtain :
But when such suggestions our graces have tried,
This answers all questions,—The Lord will provide.
- 5 No strength of our own, nor goodness we claim :
Our trust is all thrown on Jesus's Name ;
In this our strong tower for safety we hide,
The Lord is our power,—The Lord will provide.
- 6 When life sinks apace, and death is in view,
The word of his grace shall comfort us through :
Not fearing or doubting, with Christ on our side,
We hope to die shouting,—The Lord will provide.

Je-sus, lov-er of my soul, Let me to thy bosom fly, }
While the nearer waters roll, While the tempest still is high; }
D. C. Safe into the haven guide, O receive my soul at last.

Hido me, O my Saviour, hide, Till the storm of life is past
D. C.

114 The only refuge.

- 2 Other refuge have I none:
Hangs my helpless soul on thee:
Leave, O leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on thee is stayed:
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want:
More than all in thee I find:
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name;
I am all unrighteousness;
False, and full of sin I am;
Thou art full of truth and grace.
- 4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,—
Grace to cover all my sin:
Let the healing streams abound:
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art;
Freely let me take of thee:
Spring thou up within my heart;
Rise to all eternity.

Weary souls that wander wide, From the central point of bliss: }
Turn to Jesus crucified; Fly to those dear wounds of his: }
D. C. Sink into the purple flood; Rise into the life of God.

Sink into the purple flood; Rise into the life of God.

115 Fly to Jesus.

- 2 Find in Christ the way of peace,
Peace unspeakable, unknown;
By his pain he gives you ease,
Life by his expiring groan:
Rise exalted by his fall;
Find in Christ your all in all.
- 3 O believe the record true,
God to you his Son hath given;
Ye may now be happy too.
Find on earth the life of heaven:
Live the life of heaven above,
All the life of glorious love.
- 4 This the universal bliss,
Bliss for every soul designed;
God's original promise this,
God's great gift to all mankind:
Blest in Christ this moment be,
Blest to all eternity.

116 Entire consecration.

- 1 IF so poor a worm as I
May to thy great glory live,
All my actions sanctify,
All my words and thoughts receive;
Claim me for thy service, claim
All I have, and all I am.
- 2 Take my soul and body's powers;
Take my memory, mind, and will;
All my goods, and all my hours;
All I know and all I feel;
All I think, or speak, or do;
Take my heart, but make it new.

Just as thou art, without one trace Of love, or joy, or inward grace,

Or meetness for the heavenly place, O guilty, guilty sinner, come.

117 The Saviour's invitation.

- 2 Thy sins I bore on Calvary's tree;
The stripes thy due were laid on me,
That peace and pardon might be free,—
O wretched sinner, come!
- 3 Come, hither bring thy boding fears;
Thy aching heart, thy bursting tears;
'T is mercy's voice salutes thine ears,—
O trembling sinner, come!
- 4 "The Spirit and the bride say, Come;"
Rejoicing saints re-echo, Come;
Who faints, who thirsts, who will, may come:
Thy Saviour bids thee come.

118 Behold, I stand at the door.

- 1 BEHOLD, a Stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knocked before;
Has waited long—is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.
- 2 O! lovely attitude—He stands
With melting heart, and loaded hands:
O! matchless kindness—and He shows
This matchless kindness to His foes!
- 3 Admit Him, ere His anger burn,—
His feet, departed, ne'er return;
Admit Him,—or the hour's at hand,
You'll at His door rejected stand.

1. Just as I am, without one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me ;
2. Just as I am, and waiting not, To rid my soul of one dark blot,

And that thou bidd'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, etc.

119 The penitent's resolve.

- 3 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come!
- 4 Just as I am,—thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

120 Christ's presence makes death easy.

- 1 WHY should we start, and fear to die ?
What tim'rous worms we mortals are !
Death is the gate to endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife,
Fright our approaching souls away ;
And we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 O would my Lord his servant meet,
My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.
- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

1. Thou hidden love of God, whose light, Whose depth un-
2. Is there a thing beneath the sun, That strives with fathomed no man knows; I see from far thy thee my heart to share? Ah, tear it thence, and beautiful light; In - ly I sigh for thy re - pose:

reign a - lone, The Lord of ev' - ry mo - tion there;

My heart is pained, nor can it be
Then shall my heart from earth be free,

At rest, till it finds rest in thee.
When it hath found re - pose in thee.

121 Christ in you, the hope of glory.

- 3 Each moment draw from earth away
 My heart, that lowly waits thy call ;
 Speak to my inmost soul, and say,—
 I am thy love, thy God, thy all !
 To feel thy power, to hear thy voice,
 To taste thy love, be all my choice.

122 I will fear no evil for thou art with me.

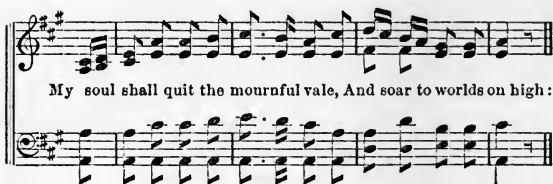

- 1 PEACE, doubting heart, my God's I am ;
 Who formed me man forbids my fear ;
 The Lord hath called me by my name ;
 The Lord protects, forever near :
 His blood for me did once atone,
 And still he loves and guards his own.
- 2 When, passing through the watery deep,
 I ask in faith his promised aid,
 The waves an awful distance keep
 And shrink from my devoted head :
 Fearless, their violence I dare ;
 They cannot harm, for God is there !
- 3 To Him mine eye of faith I turn,
 And through the fire pursue my way ;
 The fire forgets its power to burn,—
 The lambent flames around me play :
 I own his power, accept the sign,
 And shout to prove the Saviour mine.

123 Thy name is Love.

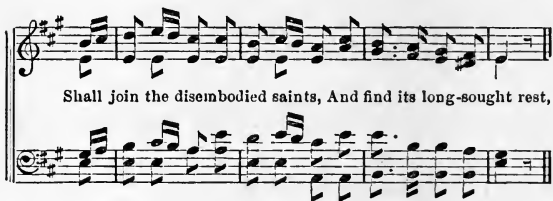

- 1 THE Sun of Righteousness on me
 Hath risen with healing in his wings :
 Withered my nature's strength, from thee
 My soul its life and succor brings ;
 My help is all laid up above ;
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.
- 2 Contented now, upon my thigh
 I halt, till life's short journey end ;
 All helplessness, all weakness, I
 On thee alone for strength depend :
 Nor have I power from thee to move ;
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.
- 3 Lame as I am, I take the prey ;
 Hell, earth, and sin, with ease o'ercome ;
 I leap for joy, pursue my way,
 And as a bounding hart, fly home,
 Through all eternity to prove
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.

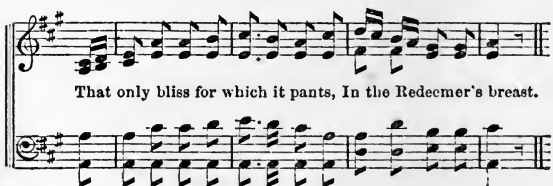

And let this feeble body fail, And let it faint or die;

My soul shall quit the mournful vale, And soar to worlds on high:

Shall join the disembodied saints, And find its long-sought rest,

That only bliss for which it pants, In the Redeemer's breast.

124 The prospect joyous.

2 In hope of that immortal crown
 I now the cross sustain,
 And gladly wander up and down,
 And smile at toil and pain:

I suffer on my threescore years,
Till my Deliv'rer come,
And wipe away his servant's tears,
And take his exile home.

3 O what hath Jesus bought for me!
Before my ravish'd eyes
Rivers of life divine I see,
And trees of Paradise:
I see a world of spirits bright,
Who taste the pleasures there;
They all are robed in spotless white,
And conqu'ring palms they bear.

4 O what are all my sufferings here,
If, Lord, thou count me meet
With that enraptured host t' appear,
And worship at thy feet!
Give joy or grief, give ease or pain,
Take life or friends away,
But let me find them all again
In that eternal day.

125 The full assurance of hope.

1 HOW happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place;
I seek my place in heaven.
A country far from mortal sight,
Yet, O by faith, I see;
The land of rest, the saints' delight,—
The heaven prepared for me.

2 O what a blessed hope is ours!
While here on earth we stay;
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And antedate that day:
We feel the resurrection near,—
Our life in Christ concealed,—
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels filled.

3 O would he more of heaven bestow!
And when the vessels break,
Let our triumphant spirits go
To grasp the God we seek;
In rapturous awe on Him to gaze,
Who bought the sight for me:
And shout and wonder at his grace
To all eternity.

1. Jesus, I my cross have taken, All to leave and follow thee ;
2. Let the world despise and leave me ; They have left my Saviour too ;

Naked, poor, despised, forsaken, Thou from hence my all shalt be.
Human hearts and looks deceive me, Thou art not, like them, untrue ;

Perish every fond ambition, All I've sought, or hoped, or known,
And while thou shalt smile upon me, God of wisdom, love, and might,

Yet how rich is my condition, God and heaven are still my own.
Foes may hate and friends disown me ; Show thy face, and all is bright.

126 Forsaking all for Christ.

- 3 Know, my soul ! thy full salvation ;
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care ;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear ;
Think, what Spirit dwells within thee ;
Think, what Father's smiles are thine ;
Think, what Jesus did to win thee :
Child of heaven ! canst thou repine ?

ARRANGED BY A. CULL.

By faith I view my Saviour dying, On the
To ev' - ry na - tion he is crying, Look to tree, On the tree; } { He bids the guilty now draw near, } me! Look to me! } { Repent, believe, dismiss their fear; }

Hark! hark! what precious words I hear, Mercy's free, Mercy's free.

127 Mercy's free.

- 2 Jesus my weary soul refreshes;—
 Mercy's free!
 And every moment Christ is precious
 Unto me.
 None can describe the bliss I prove,
 While through this wilderness I rove:
 All may enjoy the Saviour's love,
 Mercy's free! Mercy's free!
- 3 Long as I live, I'll still be crying,
 "Mercy's free!"
 And this shall be my theme when dying
 "Mercy's free!"
 And when the vale of death I've passed,
 When lodged above the stormy blast,
 I'll sing, while endless ages last,
 "Mercy's free! Mercy's free."

O happy day that fixed my choice On thee, my Saviour and my God!
Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad.

CHORUS.

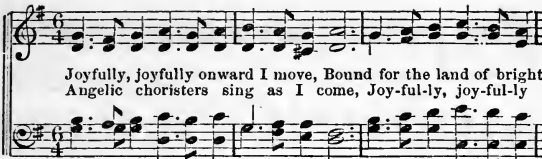

Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away!

He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoicing every day.

Happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away!

128 Vows remembered and renewed.

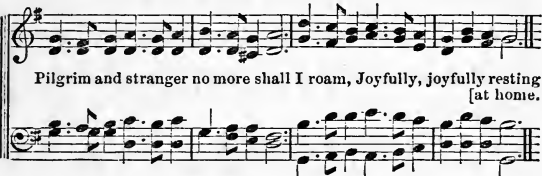

- 2 'Tis done, the great transaction's done;
I am my Lord's, and he is mine;
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice divine.
- 3 Now rest, my long-divided heart;
Fixed on this blissful center, rest;
Nor ever from thy Lord depart:
With him of every good possessed.
- 4 High Heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear,
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

Joyfully, joyfully onward I move, Bound for the land of bright
Angelic choristers sing as I come, Joy-ful-ly, joy-ful-ly

spir-its a-bove; } Soon, with my pilgrimage ended below, } haste to thy home! } Home to that land of delight will I go; }

Pilgrim and stranger no more shall I roam, Joyfully, joyfully resting
[at home.]

129 Triumphant over death.

- 2 Friends, fondly cherished, have passed on before;
Waiting, they watch me approaching that shore;
Singing to cheer me through death's chilling gloom,
Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home.
Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear;
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear!
Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome,—
Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home.
- 3 Death, with thy weapons of war, lay me low;
Strike, king of terrors, I fear not the blow;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb!
Joyfully, joyfully will I go home.
Bright will the morn of eternity dawn,
Death shall be banished, his scepter be gone;
Joyfully, then, shall I witness his doom,
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

* By permission of Prof. WILLIAM HUNTER.

Soon on that bright and heavenly plain We 'll all be gathered home ;
[There we shall meet our friends again, When we are gathered home. We 'll wait till Jesus [comes, We 'll wait till

Jesus comes, We 'll wait till Jesus comes, Then we 'll be gathered [home.

130 Glad anticipation.

- 2 O! what a cheering thought is this,
We 'll all be gathered home ;
We soon shall dwell in endless bliss,
We 'll all be gathered home.
We 'll wait till Jesus comes, etc.
- 3 Our kindred dear have gone before,
We 'll all be gathered home ;
I hear them on the distant shore,
We 'll all be gathered home.
We 'll wait till Jesus comes, etc.
- 4 When in those heavenly courts above,
We all are gathered home ;
We 'll sing the Saviour's dying love,
When we are gathered home.
We 'll wait till Jesus comes, etc.
- 5 Then speed your flight, ye passing years,
We 'll all be gathered home ;
'Till God shall wipe these falling tears,
Then we 'll be gathered home.
We 'll wait till Jesus comes, etc.

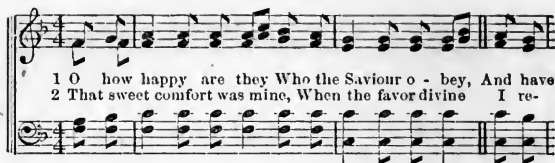

Awake, my soul! in joyful lays, And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;

He justly claims a song from me: His loving-kindness—O, how free!

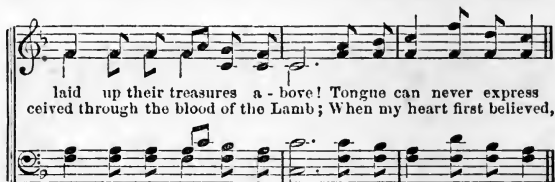

His loving-kindness, loving-kindness, His loving-kindness, O, how free!

131 Loving-kindness.

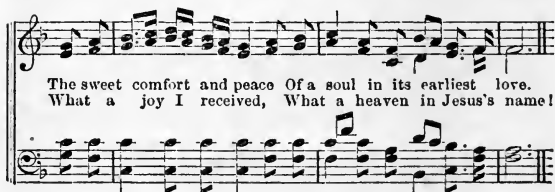

- 2 He saw me ruined by the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate;—
His loving-kindness,—O! how great!
- 3 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick, and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood—
His loving-kindness,—O! how good!
- 4 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
Soon all my mortal powers shall fail;
O! may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death.
- 5 Then let me mount, and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
And sing with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.

1 O how happy are they Who the Saviour o - bey, And have
2 That sweet comfort was mine, When the favor divine I re-laid up their treasures a - bove! Tongue can never express ceived through the blood of the Lamb; When my heart first believed,

The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its earliest love.
What a joy I received, What a heaven in Jesus's name!

132 Joy of the young convert.

- 3 'Twas a heaven below
My Redeemer to know,
And the angels could do nothing more,
Than to fall at his feet,
And the story repeat,
And the Lover of sinners adore.
- 4 Jesus all the day long
Was my joy and my song:
O that all his salvation might see:
He hath loved me, I cried,
He hath suffered and died,
To redeem even rebels like me.
- 5 O the rapturous hight
Of that holy delight
Which I felt in the life-giving blood;
Of my Saviour possessed,
I was perfectly blest,
As if filled with the fullness of God.

For - ev - er here my rest shall be, Close to thy bleeding side ;

This all my hope, and all my plea, For me the Saviour died.

136 Entire purification.

- 2 My dying Saviour, and my God,
Fountain for guilt and sin,
Sprinkle me ever with thy blood,
And cleanse and keep me clean.
- 3 Wash me, and make me thus thine own ;
Wash me, and mine thou art ;
Wash me, but not my feet alone, —
My hands, my head, my heart.
- 4 Th' atonement of thy blood apply,
Till faith to sight improve ;
Till hope in full fruition die,
And all my soul be love.

137 Prayer for submission.

- 1 FATHER, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sovereign will denies,
Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise :
- 2 Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free ;
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.
- 3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
My life and death attend ;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

When gathering clouds a - round I view, And days are dark, and friends are few, On him I lean, who not in vain

Experienced ev' - ry human pain: He feels my griefs, he sees my fears, And counts and treasures up my tears.

138 Leaning upon Jesus.

- 2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
 From heavenly virtue's narrow way,
 To fly the good I should pursue,
 Or do the sin I should not do;
 Still he, who felt temptation's power,
 Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.
- 3 And O, when I have safely past
 Through every conflict but the last,
 Still, still unchanging, watch beside
 My bed of death, for thou hast died;
 Then point to realms of cloudless day,
 And wipe the latest tear away.

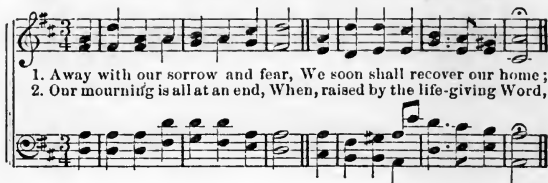

1. Jesus, my all, to heaven is gone, He, whom I fix my hopes upon;

His track I see, and I'll pursue The narrow way, till him I view.
The King's highway of holiness, I'll go, for all his paths are peace.

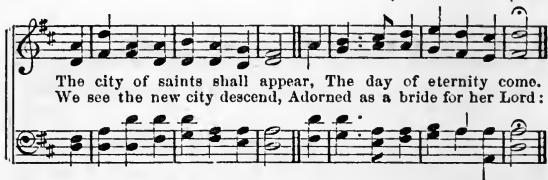

The way the holy prophets went, The road that leads from banishment,

139 The highway of holiness.

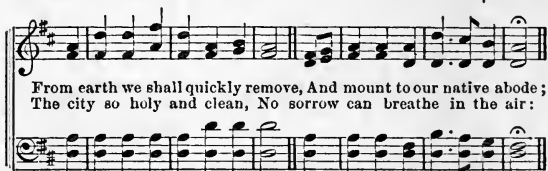

- 2 This is the way I long have sought,
And mourned because I found it not;
My grief a burden long has been,
Because I was not saved from sin.
The more I strove against its power,
I felt its weight and guilt the more;
Till late I heard my Saviour say,—
Come hither, soul, I am the way.
- 3 Lo! glad I come; and thou, blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee, as I am:
Nothing but sin have I to give,—
Nothing but love shall I receive.
Then will I tell to sinners round,
What a dear Saviour I have found;
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say,—Behold the way to God.

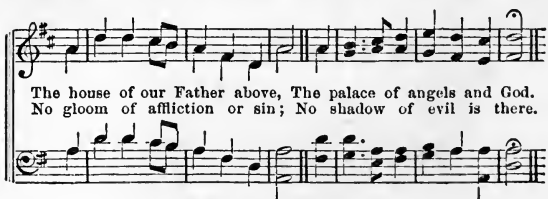

1. Away with our sorrow and fear, We soon shall recover our home ;
2. Our mourning is all at an end, When, raised by the life-giving Word,

The city of saints shall appear, The day of eternity come.
We see the new city descend, Adorned as a bride for her Lord :

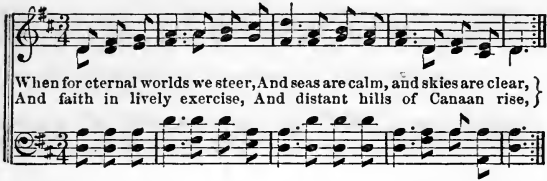

From earth we shall quickly remove, And mount to our native abode ;
The city so holy and clean, No sorrow can breathe in the air :

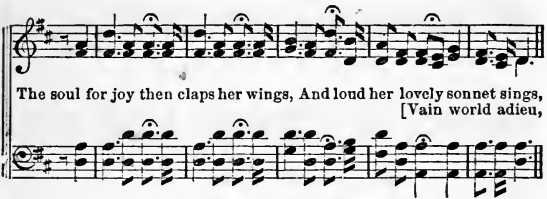

The house of our Father above, The palace of angels and God.
No gloom of affliction or sin ; No shadow of evil is there.

140 The heavenly Jerusalem.

- 3 By faith we already behold
That lovely Jerusalem here ;
Her walls are of jasper and gold ;
As crystal her buildings are clear ;
Immovably founded in grace,
She stands as she ever hath stood,
And brightly her builder displays,
And flames with the glory of God.

When for eternal worlds we steer, And seas are calm, and skies are clear, }
And faith in lively exercise, And distant hills of Canaan rise, }

The soul for joy then claps her wings, And loud her lovely sonnet sings,
[Vain world adieu,

Vain world adieu, And loud her lovely sonnet sings, Vain world
[adieu.

141 "When for eternal worlds."

- 2 With cheerful hope her eyes explore
Each landmark on the distant shore;
The trees of life, the pastures green,
The golden streets, the crystal stream;
Again for joy she claps her wings,
And loud her lovely sonnet sings,
Vain world adieu.
- 3 The nearer still she draws to land,
More eager all her powers expand;
With steady helm, and free-bent sail,
Her anchor drops within the veil;
Again for joy she claps her wings,
And loud her celestial sonnet sings,
Glory to God.

1. Hasten, sinner, to be wise! Stay not for the morrow's sun:
2. Hasten, mercy to implore! Stay not for the morrow's sun:

Wisdom if you still despise, Harder is it to be won.
Lest thy season should be o'er, Ere this evening's stage be run.

142 The danger of delay.

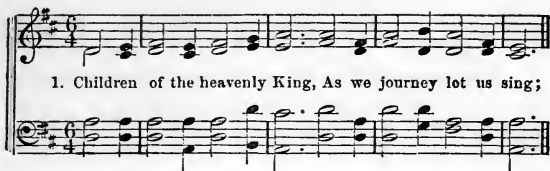

- 3 Hasten, sinner, to return!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy lamp should fail to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.
- 4 Hasten, sinner, to be blest!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest perdition thee arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

143 Tribute of praise at parting.

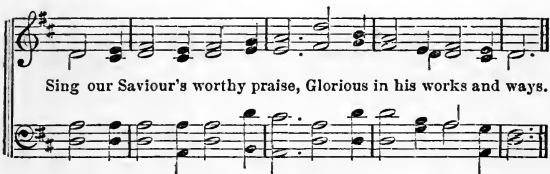

- 1 CHRISTIANS, brethren, ere we part,
Every voice and every heart
Join, and to our Father raise
One last hymn of grateful praise.
- 2 Though we here should meet no more,
Yet there is a brighter shore;
There, released from toil and pain,
There we all may meet again.

144 Prayer for God's presence.

- 1 SAVIOUR, at thy feet we bow,
O! vouchsafe to meet us now;
At thy people's earnest cry,
Bring thy loving mercy nigh.
- 2 Thou hast said, where two or three
In thy worship shall agree,
That thou wilt be present there,
Answering their faithful prayer.

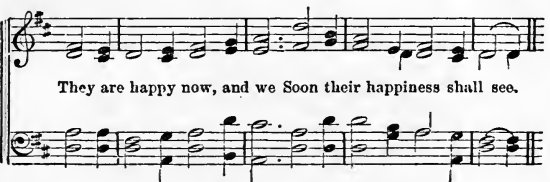

1. Children of the heavenly King, As we journey let us sing;

Sing our Saviour's worthy praise, Glorious in his works and ways.

2. We are trav'ling home to God, In the way our fathers trod;

They are happy now, and we Soon their happiness shall see.

145 The pilgrim's song.

- 3 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of our land;
Jesus Christ, our Father's Son,
Bids us undismayed go on.
- 4 Lord! obediently we 'll go,
Gladly leaving all below:
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

There is an hour of peaceful rest, To mourning wand'ers given; There is a joy for souls dis-tressed, A balm for ev' - ry wounded breast, 'T is found above in heaven.

146 The land of rest.

- 2 There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven,
When toss'd on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
And all is drear but heaven.
- 3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
To brighter prospects given;
And views the tempest passing by,
The evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene in heaven.
- 4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom;
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven.

I would not live alway: I ask not to stay Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way; The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here, Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

147 I would not live alway.

- 2 I would not live alway ; no—welcome the tomb !
 Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom
 There sweet be my rest till he bid me arise,
 To hail him in triumph descending the skies.
- 3 Who, who would live alway, away from his God—
 Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
 Where rivers of pleasure flow bright o'er the plains,
 And the noontide of glory eternally reigns ?
- 4 There saints of all ages in harmony meet,
 Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet ;
 While anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
 And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

148 Doxology.

O FATHER Almighty, to thee be addressed,
 With Christ and the Spirit, one God, ever blest,
 All glory and worship, from earth and from heaven,
 As was, and is now, and shall ever be given.

There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign ;
Infinite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain. }

We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground, We soon shall hear the [trumpet sound,

And soon we shall with Jesus reign, And never, never part again.

149 The heavenly Canaan.

- 2 There, everlasting spring abides,
And never-fading flowers ;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
We're marching, etc.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green ;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
We're marching, etc.
- 4 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.
We're marching, etc.

The glorious armies of the sky, To thee, al-might-y King,

Triumphant anthems consecrate, And hal - le - lu - iahs sing.

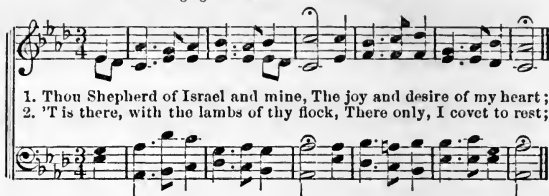

150 Ceaseless praise.

- 2 But still their most exalted flights
Fall vastly short of thee ;
How distant then must human praise
From thy perfections be.
- 3 Yet how, my God, shall I refrain,
When to my ravish'd sense,
Each creature everywhere around
Displays thy excellence?
- 4 Thy num'rous works exalt thee, Lord,
Nor will I silent be ;
O rather let me cease to breathe,
Than cease from praising thee.

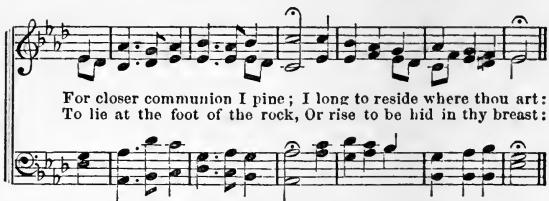

151 The believer's rest.

- 1 LORD, I believe a rest remains
To all thy people known ;
A rest where pure enjoyment reigns,
And thou art loved alone ;
- 2 A rest where all our soul's desire
Is fix'd on things above :
Where fear, and sin, and grief expire,
Cast out by perfect love.
- 3 O that I now the rest might know,
Believe, and enter in ;
Now, Saviour, now the power bestow,
And let me cease from sin.
- 4 Remove this hardness from my heart ;
This unbelief remove ;
To me the rest of faith impart ;—
The Sabbath of thy love.

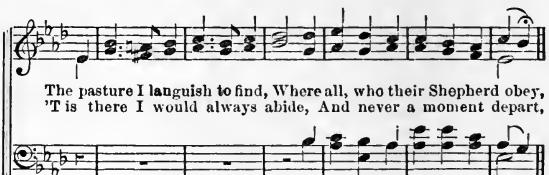

152 Longing for still closer communion.

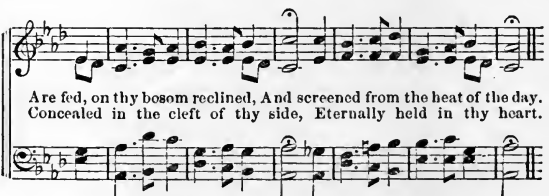

1. Thou Shepherd of Israel and mine, The joy and desire of my heart ;
2. 'T is there, with the lambs of thy flock, There only, I covet to rest ;

For closer communion I pine ; I long to reside where thou art :
To lie at the foot of the rock, Or rise to be hid in thy breast :

The pasture I languish to find, Where all, who their Shepherd obey,
'T is there I would always abide, And never a moment depart,

Are fed, on thy bosom reclined, And screened from the heat of the day.
Concealed in the cleft of thy side, Eternally held in thy heart.

153 Evening; Perfect security.

- 1 INSPIRER and Hearer of prayer,
Thou Shepherd and Guardian divine,
My all to thy covenant care
I, sleeping or waking, resign.

While thou art my shield and my sun,
The night is no darkness to me ;
And, fast as my minutes roll on,
They bring me but nearer to thee.

- 2 A sov'reign Protector I have,
Unseen, yet forever at hand ;
Unchangeably faithful to save,—
Almighty to rule and command.
Thy minist'ring spirits descend
To watch, while thy saints are asleep ;
By day and by night they attend,
The heirs of salvation to keep.
- 3 Their worship no interval knows ;
Their fervor is still on the wing :
And while they protect my repose,
They chant to the praise of my King.
I, too, at the season ordained,
Their chorus forever shall join ;
And love and adore, without end,
Their faithful Creator and mine.

154 Desiring to be with Christ.

- 1 O WHEN shall we sweetly remove,
O when shall we enter our rest,—
Return to the Zion above,
The mother of spirits distress'd ;—
That city of God the Great King,
Where sorrow and death are no more,
Where saints our Immanuel sing,
And cherub and seraph adore ?
- 2 But angels themselves cannot tell
The joys of that holiest place,
Where Jesus is pleased to reveal
The light of his heavenly face ;
When, caught in the rapturous flame,
The sight beatific they prove ;
And walk in the light of the Lamb,
Enjoying the beams of his love.
- 3 Thou know'st in the spirit of prayer
We long thy appearing to see,
Resigned to the burden we bear,
But longing to triumph with thee :
'T is good at thy word to be here :
'T is better in thee to be gone,
And see thee in glory appear,
And rise to a share in thy throne.

Cometh sunshine after rain, After mourning, joy again ; }
Aft - er heavy bitter grief, Dawneth surely sweet relief. }

And my soul who from her hight Sank to realms of woe and night,

Wingeth now to heaven her flight : Cometh sunshine after rain.

155 Sunshine after rain.

- 2 Bitter anguish have I known,
Keen regret my heart hath torn,
Sorrow dimmed my weeping eyes,
Satan blinded me with lies ;
Yet at last am I set free
Help, protection, love, to me ;
Once more true companions be :
Cometh sunshine after rain.
- 3 Though to-day may not fulfill
All thy hopes, have patience still ;
For perchance to-morrow's sun,
Sees thy happier days begun ;
As God willeth march the hours,
Bringing joy at last in showers,
And whate'er we asked is ours :
Cometh sunshine after rain.

Or the fullness of the sea, When it breaks upon the shore: }

Hal - le - lu - iah! for the Lord God om - ni - potent shall reign ;

Hal - le - lu - iah! let the word Echo round the earth and main.

156 The song of jubilee.

- 2 Halleluiah!—hark! the sound,
From the center to the skies,
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies:
See Jehovah's banners furl'd;
Sheathed his sword: he speaks—'t is done,
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of his Son.
- 3 He shall reign from pole to pole
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign, when, like a scroll,
Yonder heavens have pass'd away;
Then the end;—beneath his rod,
Man's last enemy shall fall;
Halleluiah! Christ in God,
God in Christ, is all in all.

Who are these in bright array? This innumerable throng,

Round the altar night and day Tuning their triumphant song?

"Worthy is the Lamb once slain, Blessing, honor, glory, power, Wisdom, riches, to obtain; New dominion every hour."

157 Earthly trial and heavenly joy.

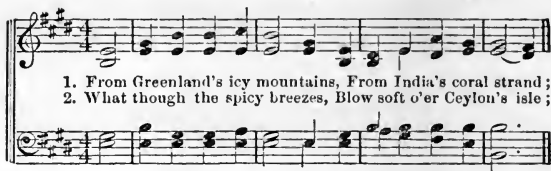

- 1 WHO are these in bright array?
 This innumerable throng,
 Round the altar night and day
 Tuning their triumphant song?

Worthy is the Lamb once slain,
 Blessing, honor, glory, power,
 Wisdom, riches, to obtain ;
 New dominion every hour.

- 2 These through fiery trials trod ;
 These from great affliction came ;
 Now before the throne of God,
 Sealed with his eternal Name :
 Clad in raiment pure and white,
 Victor palms in every hand,
 Through their great Redeemer's might,
 More than conquerors they stand.
- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease, unknown,
 On immortal fruits they feed ;
 Them the Lamb amidst the throne
 Shall to living fountains lead ;
 Joy and gladness banish sighs :
 Perfect love dispels their fears ;
 And forever from their eyes
 God shall wipe away their tears.

158 Paradise.

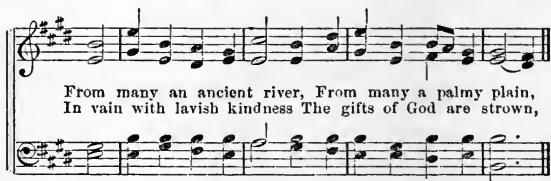

- 1 BURST, ye emerald gates, and bring
 To my raptured vision,
 All the ecstatic joys that spring
 Round the bright Elysian.
 Lo! we lift our longing eyes,
 Break, ye intervening skies,
 Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Ope the gates of Paradise !
- 2 Floods of everlasting light,
 Freely flash before him !
 Myriads, with supreme delight,
 Instantly adore him ;
 Angel trumps resound his fame ;
 Lutes of lucid gold proclaim
 All the music of his name ;
 Heaven is hightened by the theme.
- 3 Hark, the thrilling symphonies
 Seem, methinks, to seize us ;
 Join we to the holy lays,
 Jesus! Jesus! Jesus!
 Sweetest sound in seraph's song,
 Sweetest note on mortal's tongue,
 Sweetest carol ever sung,
 Jesus! Jesus! flow along.

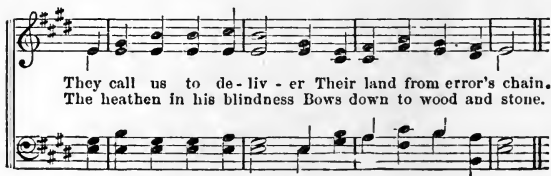

1. From Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand;
2. What though the spicy breezes, Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;

Where Afric's sunny fountains Roll down their golden sand;
Though every prospect pleases, And only man is vile:

From many an ancient river, From many a palmy plain,
In vain with lavish kindness The gifts of God are strown,

They call us to de - liv - er Their land from error's chain.
The heathen in his blindness Bows down to wood and stone.

159 The cry of the heathen.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation!—O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learn'd Messiah's name.

- 4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till, like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole;
 Till o'er our ransom'd nature
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

160 The universal anthem.

- 1 WHEN shall the voice of singing
 Flow joyfully along?
 When hill and valley, ringing
 With one triumphant song,
 Proclaim the contest ended,
 And him, who once was slain,
 Again to earth descended,
 In righteousness to reign?
- 2 Then from the craggy mountains
 The sacred shout shall fly,
 And shady vales and fountains
 Shall echo the reply:
 High tower and lowly dwelling
 Shall send the chorus round,
 All halleluiahs swelling
 In one eternal sound.

161 Grateful praise.

- 1 WE bring no glitt'ring treasures,
 No gems from earth's deep mine;
 We come, with simple measures,
 To chant thy love divine.
 Children, thy favors sharing,
 Their voice of thanks would raise;
 Father, accept our off'ring,
 Our song of grateful praise.
- 2 Redeemer! grant thy blessing!
 O! teach us how to pray,
 That each, thy fear possessing,
 May tread life's onward way;
 Then where the pure are dwelling
 We hope to meet again,
 And sweeter numbers swelling,
 Forever praise thy Name.

The morning light is breaking, The darkness disappears;

The sons of earth are waking To pen - i - ten - tial tears:

Each breeze that sweeps the ocean, Brings tidings from a - far,

Of nations in commo - tion, Prepared for Zion's war.

162 The world's hope.

- 1 THE morning light is breaking,
 The darkness disappears;
 The sons of earth are waking
 To penitential tears:
 Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
 Brings tidings from afar,
 Of nations in commotion,
 Prepared for Zion's war.
- 2 See heathen nations bending
 Before the God we love,
 And thousand hearts ascending
 In gratitude above:

While sinners, now confessing,
 The gospel call obey,
 And seek the Saviour's blessing,—
 A nation in a day.

- 3 Blessed river of salvation,
 Pursue thy onward way;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay;
 Stay not till all the lowly
 Triumphant reach their home;
 Stay not till all the holy
 Proclaim—the Lord is come.

163 The glory of His kingdom.

- 1 HAIL to the Lord's anointed,
 Great David's greater Son!
 Hail, in the time appointed,
 His reign on earth begun!
 He comes to break oppression,—
 To set the captive free;
 To take away transgression,
 And rule in equity.
- 2 He comes with succor speedy
 To those who suffer wrong;
 To help the poor and needy,
 And bid the weak be strong;
 To give them songs for sighing,—
 Their darkness turn to light,—
 Whose souls, condemn'd and dying,
 Were precious in his sight.
- 3 He shall descend like showers
 Upon the fruitful earth,
 And love and joy, like flowers,
 Spring in his path to birth;
 Before him, on the mountains,
 Shall peace, the herald, go,
 And righteousness, in fountains,
 From hill to valley flow.
- 4 To him shall prayer unceasing,
 And daily vows ascend;
 His kingdom still increasing,—
 A kingdom without end;
 The tide of time shall never
 His covenant remove;
 His name shall stand forever;
 That name to us is Love.

On Jor - dan's storm - y banks I stand,

And cast a wish - ful eye, To

To Canaan's fair and

Canaan's fair and happy land, Where my possessions lie, To happy land, Where my possessions lie.

Canaan's fair and hap - py land, Where my possessions lie.

164 The promised land.

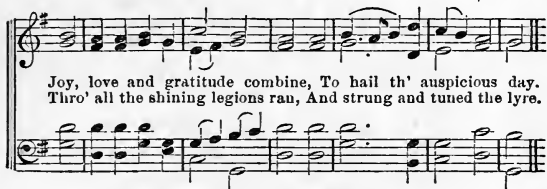

- 2 O the transporting, rapturous scene,
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight.
- 3 O'er all those wide-extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God the Son forever reigns,
And scatters night away.

- 4 No chilling winds, or pois'nous breath,
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.
- 5 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest?
- 6 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
Would here no longer stay;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

1. Mortals awake, with angels join, And chant the solemn lay;
2. In heaven the rapt'rous song began, And sweet seraphic fire

Joy, love and gratitude combine, To hail th' auspicious day.
Thro' all the shining legions ran, And strung and tuned the lyre.

165 Glory to God in the highest.

- 3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew,
And loud the echo rolled;
The theme, the song, the joy, was new,—
'T was more than heaven could hold.
- 4 Down through the portals of the sky
Th' impetuous torrent ran;
And angels flew, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.

Redeemer, Brother, Friend!
Though earth, and time, and life shall fail,
Thy praise shall never end.

DEPTH OF MERCY.

BY PERMISSION.

WM. M. ROBERTS.

Depth of mercy! can there be Mercy still reserved for me? }
Can my God his wrath forbear? Me, the chief of sinners, spare? }

CHORUS.

God is love, I know, I feel; Jesus weeps and loves me still;

Je - sus weeps; he weeps and loves me still.

168 Mercy for the chief of sinners.

- 2 I have long withstood his grace;
Long provoked him to his face;
Would not hearken to his calls;
Grieved him by a thousand falls;
- 3 Now incline me to repent;
Let me now my sins lament;
Now my foul revolt deplore;
Weep, believe, and sin no more.
- 4 Kindled his relentings are;
Me he now delights to spare;
Cries, How shall I give thee up?—
Lest the lifted thunder drop.
- 5 There for me the Saviour stands;
Shows his wounds, and spreads his hands;
God is love! I know, I feel;
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

Silently they bring before us, Faces we shall see no more.

Where our spirits only blend,

We may hope to gain at last. •

PILGRIM.

I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger, I can tarry, I can tarry but a night.

D. C.

Do not detain me, for I am going To where the rivers are ever flowing.

170 Strangers, as our fathers were.

- 2 There the sunbeams are ever shining,
I am longing for the sight;
Within a country unknown and dreary,
I have been wandering, forlorn and weary.
- 3 Of the country to which I'm going,
My Redeemer is the light;
There is no sorrow, nor any sighing,
Nor any sinning, nor any dying,

THERE'LL BE NO SORROW THERE.

Far from these scenes of night, Unbounded glories rise, And heaven above, where all is love, There'll be no sorrow there.

The musical score consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 6/8. The first system covers the first two lines of text, and the second system covers the next two lines. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

171 The goodly land.

- 2 Fair land!—could mortal eyes
But half its charms explore,
How would our spirits long to rise,
And dwell on earth no more
- 3 No cloud those regions know—
Realms ever bright and fair;
For sin, the source of mortal woe,
Can never enter there.
- 4 O may the prospect fire
Our hearts with ardent love,
Till wings of faith, and strong desire,
Bear every thought above.
- 5 Prepared, by grace divine,
For thy bright courts on high,
Lord, bid our spirits rise and join
The chorus of the sky.

My heavenly home is bright and fair, Nor pain, nor death, can enter
 Its glitt'ring towers the sun outshine, That heavenly mansion shall [there ;
 [be mine.

CHORUS.

I'm going home, I'm going home, I'm going home to die no more ;
 To die no more, to die no more, I'm going home to die no more.

172 I'm going home.

- 2 My Father's house is built on high,
 Far, far above the starry sky ;
 When from this earthly prison free,
 That heavenly mansion mine shall be.
- 3 While here a stranger, far from home,
 Affliction's waves may round me foam ;
 And though, like Lazarus, sick and poor,
 My heavenly mansion is secure.
- 4 Then fail this earth, let stars decline,
 And sun and moon refuse to shine,
 All nature sink and cease to be,
 That heavenly mansion stands for me.

173 Heavenly bliss in prospect.

- 1 ARISE, my soul, on wings sublime,
 Above the vanities of time ;
 Let faith now pierce the vail, and see
 The glories of eternity.
- 2 Shall aught beguile me on the road,—
 The narrow road that leads to God ?
 Or can I love this earth so well,
 As not to long with God to dwell ?
- 3 To dwell with God,—to taste his love,
 Is the full heaven enjoyed above ;
 The glorious expectation now
 Is heavenly bliss begun below.

- 2 Wildly the storm sweeps us on as it roars,
 We're homeward bound ;
 Look ! yonder lie the bright, heavenly shores,
 We're homeward bound ;
 Steady, O pilot ! stand firm at the wheel,
 Steady ! we soon shall outweather the gale,
 O how we fly 'neath the loud creaking sail,
 We're homeward bound.
- 3 Down the horizon the earth disappears,
 We're homeward bound ;
 Joyful, O comrades ! no sighing or tears,
 We're homeward bound ;
 Listen ! what music comes soft o'er the sea
 " Welcome, thrice welcome and blessed are ye."
 Can it the greeting of paradise be ?
 We're homeward bound.
- 4 Into the harbor of heaven now we glide,
 We're home at last :
 Softly we drift on its bright silver tide,
 We're home at last ;
 Glory to God ; all our dangers are o'er ;
 Safely we stand on the radiant shore,
 Glory to God ! we will shout evermore,
 We're home at last.

Come on, my partners in distress, My comrades thro' the wilderness,

Look forward to that heavenly place,
The saint's secure abode ;
On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,

We shall before his face appear,
And by his side sit down ;
To patient faith the prize is sure ;
And all that to the end endure
The cross, shall wear the crown.

It lifts the fainting spirits up ;
It brings to life the dead ;
Our conflicts here shall soon be past,
And you and I ascend at last,
Triumphant with our Head.

With serious industry and fear
Eternal bliss t' insure;
Thine utmost counsel to fulfill,
And suffer all thy righteous will,
And to the end endure.

188 We're traveling home to heaven.

- 1 WE'RE traveling home to heaven above,—Will you go?
 To sing the Saviour's dying love,—Will you go?
 Millions have reached that blest abode,
 Anointed kings and priests to God,
 And millions now are on the road,—Will you go?
- 2 We're going to see the bleeding Lamb,—Will you go?
 In rapturous strains to praise his name,—Will you go?
 The crown of life we there shall wear,
 The conqueror's palms our hands shall bear,
 And all the joys of heaven we'll share,—Will you go?
- 3 Ye weary, heavy laden, come,—Will you go?
 In the blest house there still is room,—Will you go?
 The Lord is waiting to receive,
 If thou wilt on him now believe,
 He'll give thy troubled conscience ease,—Come believe.
- 4 The way to heaven is straight and plain,—Will you go?
 Repent, believe, be born again,—Will you go?
 The Saviour cries aloud to thee,
 "Take up thy cross and follow me,
 And thou shalt my salvation see,—Come to me!"

O Lord, thy heavenly grace impart, And fix my frail, inconstant heart; Henceforth my chief desire shall be To ded - i - cate my - self to Thee, To Thee, To Thee.

189 Self-dedication to the Lord.

- 1 O LORD, thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail, inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief desire shall be
To dedicate myself to thee.
- 2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy:
That silent, secret thought shall be,
That all my thoughts are fixed on thee.
- 3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space;
Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
And wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit rest with thee.
- 4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
And safe beneath thy spreading wing,
My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
That all I want I find in thee.

1. Thou grace divine, encircling all, A soundless, shoreless sea!
2. When over dizzy steeps we go, One soft hand blinds our eyes;

Wherein at last, our souls shall fall, O love of God most free!
The other leads us safe and slow, O love of God most wise!

190 The love of God.

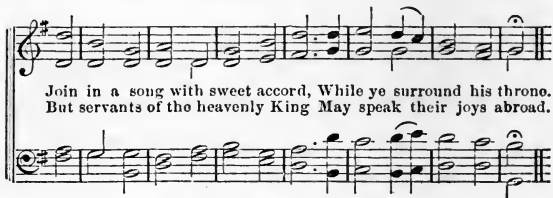

- 3 And though we turn us from thy face,
And wander wide and long,
Thou hold'st us still in thine embrace,
O love of God most strong!
- 4 The saddened heart, the restless soul,
The toil-worn frame and mind,
Alike confess thy sweet control,
O love of God most kind!
- 5 But not alone thy care we claim,
Our wayward steps to win;
We know thee by a dearer name,
O love of God within!

191 Walk in the light.

- 1 WALK in the light! so shalt thou know
That fellowship of love,
His Spirit only can bestow
Who reigns in light above.
- 2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away,
Because that Light hath on thee shone
In which is perfect day.
- 3 Walk in the light! and e'en the tomb
No fearful shade shall wear;
Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there.

1. Come, ye that love the Lord, And let your joys be known;
2. Let those re - fuse to sing Who nev - er knew our God,

Join in a song with sweet accord, While ye surround his throne.
But servants of the heavenly King May speak their joys abroad.

192 Glory begun below.

- 3 There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in
- 4 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below:
Celestial fruit on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow:
- 5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

193 One in Christ Jesus.

- 1 LET party names no more
The Christian world o'erspread;
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,
Are one in Christ their Head.
- 2 Among the saints on earth
Let mutual love be found;
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.
- 3 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above:
Where streams of bliss forever flow,
And every heart is love.

1. Jesus, who knows full well The heart of every saint,

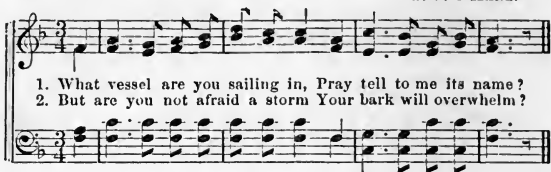

Invites us all our griefs to tell, To pray and nev - er faint.

194 Pray without ceasing.

- 2 He bows his gracious ear—
We never plead in vain;
Then let us wait till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.
- 3 Jesus, the Lord, will hear
His chosen when they cry;
Yes, though he may a while forbear,
He 'll help them from on high.
- 4 Then let us earnest cry,
And never faint in prayer;
He sees, he hears, and from on high
Will make our cause his care.

195 Mutual Exhortation.

- 1 COME, brethren, let us go!
The evening closeth round;
'Tis perilous to linger here
On this wild desert ground.
- 2 Come, children, let us go!
Our Father is our guide;
And when the way grows steep and dark,
He journeys at our side.
- 3 The strong be quick to raise
The weaker when they fall;
Let love and peace and patience bloom
In ready help for all.
- 4 It will not last for long,
A little farther roam;
It will not last much longer now,
Ere we shall reach our home.

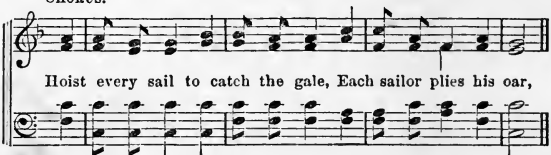

1. What vessel are you sailing in, Pray tell to me its name?
2. But are you not afraid a storm Your bark will overwhelm?

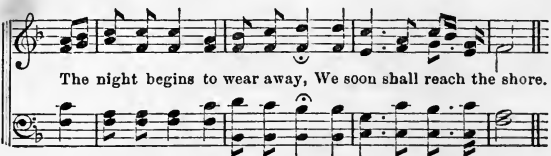

Our ves - sel is the ark of God, And Christ our Captain's name.
We need not fear, our Lord is near, Our Father's at the helm.

CHORUS.

Hoist every sail to catch the gale, Each sailor plies his oar,

The night begins to wear away, We soon shall reach the shore.

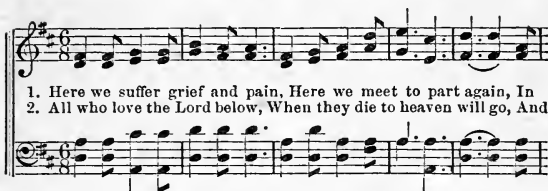

196 The Christian's voyage.

- 3 We've looked astern, and many a storm
The Lord has brought us through;
We're looking now ahead, and lo!
The land appears in view!
Hoist every sail, etc.
- 4 The sun is up, the clouds are gone,
The heavens above are clear;
A city bright appears in sight,
We're getting round the pier
Hoist every sail, etc.

- 5 Heave out your boat, I'll go along,
If you can find me room.
We've room for you, for all the world;
Make no delay to come.
Hoist every sail, etc.
- 6 And when we all are landed safe
On that celestial plain,
Our song shall be, "Worthy the Lamb
For rebel sinners slain!"
Hoist every sail, etc.

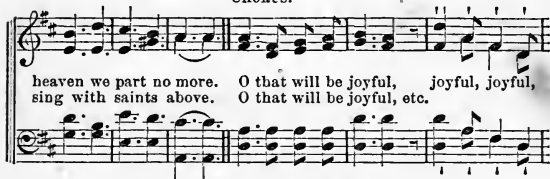

PARTING.

T. C. O'K.

1. Here we suffer grief and pain, Here we meet to part again, In
2. All who love the Lord below, When they die to heaven will go, And heaven we part no more. O that will be joyful, joyful, joyful, sing with saints above. O that will be joyful, etc.

CHORUS.

joyful, O that will be joyful, To meet to part no more.

197 Meeting in Heaven.

- 3 There we all shall sing with joy,
And eternity employ
In praising Christ the Lord.
O that will be joyful, etc.

WORDS BY LIZZIE ARNOLD.

MUSIC BY C. DUNBAR.

Je - sus, my soul would fly, A - way from earth-born cares,
CHORUS. For O, in heaven above, My star - ry home so fair,

To dwell with thee in bliss on high, Far from this vale of tears.
The land of peace, and joy, and love, There is no sorrow there.

198 Longings for heaven.

- 1 JESUS, my soul would fly,
Away from earth-born cares
To dwell with thee in bliss on high
Far from this vale of tears.
For O, in heaven above,
My starry home so fair,
The land of peace, and joy, and love,
There is no sorrow there.
- 2 Thou world of joy and light,
Thy gates of pearl unfold !
And open to my longing sight
The streets of shining gold.
For O, in heaven above, etc.
- 3 By faith I see the land
Where all is sweet and fair,
And I, at last, victorious stand,
Welcomed by Jesus there.
For O, in heaven above, etc.
- 4 The golden crown I've won ;
The palm of victory bear !
O Lamb of God ! the work is done,
And I thy kingdom share.
For O, in heaven above, etc.

Will you go, sin-ner, go. To the highlands of heaven?
Where the storms never blow, And the long summer 's given;

Where no sin, nor dismay, Neither trouble nor sorrow,

Will be felt for a day, Nor be feared for the morrow.

199 The sinner's invitation.

- 2 There the rivers of joy
O'er the bright plains are flowing;
And our bliss ne'er shall cloy!
To that land we are going.
Will you go, sinner, go,
And the world leave behind you?
Since its pleasures you know
Have but dazzled to blind you.
- 3 Will you go to that land
Where your friends wait to greet you?
There a beautiful band
Join with us to entreat you;
They are waiting above,
Waiting happy to hail you,
In those regions of love
Where no ills can assail you.

COME TO JESUS.

Come to Je - sus, come to Je - sus, come to Je - sus, come to

Je - sus, come to Je - sus, come to Je - sus, come to

Je - sus, just now, just now, Come to Je - sus, just now.

PASSING AWAY.

We are pass - ing a - way, We are pass - ing a - way,

We are pass - ing a - way To the great judgment day.

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds In a believer's ear!
 CHORUS. I do believe, I now believe, That Jesus died for me,

It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds, And drives away his fear.
 And through his blood, his precious blood, I shall from sin be free.

SAY, BROTHERS.

ARRANGED BY A. T.

1. Say, brothers, will you meet us, Say, brothers, will you meet us,
2. By the grace of God we'll meet you, By the grace of God we'll meet you,
3. Jesus lives and reigns forever, Jesus lives and reigns forever,
4. Glory, glo - ry, hal - le - lu - iah, Glory, glo - ry, hal - le - lu - iah,

Say, brothers, will you meet us On Canaan's happy shore?
 By the grace of God we'll meet you, Where parting is no more.
 Jesus lives and reigns forever, On Canaan's happy shore.
 Glory, glo - ry, hal - le - lu - iah, For - ev - er, ev - er - more.

I'm going home, I'm going home, I'm going home to die no more ;

The first system of musical notation for the song 'I'm Going Home'. It consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both in 3/4 time. The treble staff contains a melody with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a key signature change to one flat (Bb) in the second measure. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment.

To die no more, To die no more, I'm going home to die no more.

The second system of musical notation for the song 'I'm Going Home'. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system, ending with a double bar line.

WE'LL STAND THE STORM.

We'll stand the storm, it won't be long, The heavenly port is nigh ;

The first system of musical notation for the song 'We'll Stand the Storm'. It features a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff in 3/4 time with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The treble staff has a melody with a key signature change to one sharp (F#) in the second measure. The bass staff has a steady accompaniment.

We'll stand the storm, it won't be long, We'll anchor by and by.

The second system of musical notation for the song 'We'll Stand the Storm'. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system, ending with a double bar line.

Fireside Reading.

In Five Volumes. By REV. D. W. CLARK, D. D.

16mo. Price, by the Set.....$3 00

Vol. I. Travel and Adventure, Comprising some of the most Striking Narratives on Record.

Price.....$0 65

In this volume the editor has grouped some of the most striking narratives of excursions, exploits, adventures, shipwrecks, imprisonments, escapes, etc., on record.

Vol. II. Historical Sketches; or, Narratives and Striking Events in the Course of Human Affairs.

Price.....$0 65

In this volume the author has selected from history a few prominent subjects, which are calculated in an unusual degree to arrest the attention and excite the interest of the young.

Vol. III. True Tales for the Spare Hour; or, Sketches of Life and Character.

Price.....$0 65

This volume presents to the reader in the interesting garb of story such incidents as in all their essential details are based upon the authentic facts of history. The form in which they are here presented gives to them a life-like character which mere historical narrative rarely if ever attains.

Vol. IV. Traits and Anecdotes of Animals, Illustrating their Natural History, Habits, and Instincts.

Price.....$0 65

In this work technical terms and minute classifications have been avoided. In delineating the habits and powers both physical and mental of animals, striking incidents, illustrations, and anecdotes rather than dry and formal scientific details have been employed.

Vol. V. Traits and Anecdotes of Birds and Fishes, Illustrating their Natural History, Habits, and Instincts.

Price.....$0 65

In this volume the author has not attempted a full enumeration of all known birds and fishes of each class, but has adapted the work to popular reading by taking only those subjects most interesting in their character, and furnishing such anecdotal and historical illustrations as will interest the general reader.

Whedon's Commentary.

A Commentary on the Gospels of Matthew and Mark. Intended for Popular Use. By D. D. WHEDON, D. D.

12mo. 422 pp. Price.....$1 00

This volume embraces a fine map of Palestine and other valuable illustrations. It will be found a very convenient and useful work for family reading, also for Sabbath school teachers. It is highly recommended by the press.

History of the Great Reformation

In England, Ireland, Scotland, Germany, France, and Italy. By REV. THOMAS CARTER.

12mo. 372 pp. Price.....$1 00

This work has been written in the spirit of the Reformers, and embraces the entire scope of the subject indicated in its title. It is condensed into a volume of 372 pages, and presents the subject of which it treats in a clear, fresh, and earnest style. It will be found a brief but readable and impressive history of the great movement.

Aspects of Christianity.

Christianity Viewed in some of its Leading Aspects.
By REV. A. L. R. FOOTE. Edited by REV. D. W.
CLARK, D. D.

18mo. 182 pp. Price.....$0 40

The author of this work has not condescended to sectarian views of Christianity in his mode of treating the subject, but to the question more directly, "Have we a Christianity at all?" The nature of the work may be judged by the following contents: 1. Christianity a Life. 2. Christianity a Work. 3. Christianity a Reward. 4. Christianity a Culture. 5. Christianity a Discipline. 6. Christianity a Fellowship.

Our Friends in Heaven;

Or, the Mutual Recognition of the Redeemed in Glory Demonstrated. By REV. J. M. KILLEN, M. A. Edited by REV. D. W. CLARK, D. D.

12mo. 285 pp. Price.....$0 60

Who has not raised the question a thousand times, "Will we know our friends in heaven?" By a careful perusal of this book the reader will find much to favor the doctrine that the desire of the soul will be satisfied in that world of life by the recognition of those who have passed on before, to enjoy the society of the blest.

The Life of Jacob Gruber.

By REV. W. P. STRICKLAND.

12mo. 384 pp. Price.....$1 00

This work is a neatly-executed volume of 384 pages, embellished with a fine engraving of the likeness and autograph of that most singular and eccentric Methodist preacher. It so clearly brings out the peculiarities of the man that, after seeing his likeness and autograph, and reading the work, you will always involuntarily feel that among your personal acquaintances you will number the far-famed Jacob Gruber.

A Missionary Among Cannibals;

Or, the Life of John Hunt, who was Eminently Successful in Converting the People of Fiji from Cannibalism to Christianity. By GEORGE STRINGER ROWE.

12mo. 286 pp. Price.....$0 65

This volume is well calculated to promote the growth of deep and earnest piety. It brings out in strong relief the spiritual life of a very holy man. The self-sacrificing piety, and the true missionary spirit which it will promote in the young, is a great want of the times.
